Sweet Smell Of Mothers Milkwet Bodice:

Sweet Mother Prophecy Andrew Titus, 2002      Bridges, Borders and Bodies Christine Vogt-William, 2014-10-02 South Asian diasporas can be considered transcultural legacies of colonialism while constituting transcultural forms of postcolonial reality in today's globalised world. The main focus of investigation here is South Asian women's fiction where diverse forms of identity negotiation undertaken by the protagonists in a number of contemporary novels from the 1990s to the early 2000s are read as transgressions. The themes of early gendered experiences of South Asian indentured labour migration, female genealogies and transmissions of cultural heritages down female lines as well as negotiations of patriarchal violence are read using a framework culled from postcolonial and feminist criticism. The literary representations of South Asian diasporic female experience in these texts are forms of commentary and critique by contemporary South Asian diasporic women writers. Hence these novels can be viewed as feminist strategies of textual creativity with distinct political aims of presenting transformative narratives addressing the tensions of diaspora and patriarchy. This book is intended to contribute to the current spectrum of academic work being done in diaspora studies in that it brings together the concepts of diaspora, transculturality, contemporary women's writing and transnational feminist critical approaches to bear on South Asian women's diasporic literature. Contrary to the celebratory notion of the concept in much theory, transculturality as represented in these texts is fraught with ambivalence.

Indian Women's Short Fiction Joel Kuortti, Mittapalli Rajeshwar, 2007. Although Indian Women's Short Fiction has always enjoyed equal importance and popularity as their novels, very little critical attention has been paid to it so far. Indian Women's Short Fiction seeks to fulfil this long felt need. It puts together fifteen perceptive and analytical articles by scholars across the world. The articles which are focussed on native Indian writing as well as diasporic short fiction deal with such interesting literary issues as construction of femininity, disablement and enablement, Bengali heritage, hybrid identities, nostalgia, representation of the partition, violence, tradition and modernity and cultural perspectivism. It is hoped that the book will prove useful to scholars interested in short fiction studies in general and Indian women's short fiction in particular.

Garden of the Gods Dina Desveaux, 2004      The Yoko Ono Project Jean Yoon, Yoko Ono, 2002. Three very different Asian Canadian women fall into the world of Yoko Ono: her music, art, instruction, poems and words, and are never the same again. A cheeky multimedia performance art comedy, The Yoko Ono Project unravels and investigates the demonization of one of the most intriguing and controversial artists in North American pop culture.

I Love You Gino D'Artali, 2003. I Love You is a selection of the poetry written in English and Spanish entered by poets worldwide to the FacingFACES 2002 conscience-raising arts art project in Ciudad Juarez, Mexico. I Love You is a compelling collection of poetry that often heartbreakingly reveals the pain and suffering girls and women too often undergo when being confronted with domestic violence and sexual abuse. It is also a book of hope simultaneously revealing the strength victims have to overcome their abusers' cowardliness and showing their courage to share their stories with you      Indian Diaspora Literature: A Critical Evaluation Dipak Giri, 2024-02-05 In this period of globalization many individuals are trying to upgrade the life and for that most of them are now migrating to other lands In the process of getting settle in new land they encounter many problems The issue of migration and immigration brings forward the question of exile identity assimilation memory nostalgia hopelessness uprootedness hybridity and so on Indian writers have beautifully picked up experiences of such people and penned them down Such writing is called Diaspora Literature wherein immigrant experiences have been shared through literature This type of literature includes expatriate stories refugee chronicles and immigrant narratives The present anthology Indian Diaspora Literature A Critical Evaluation covers as many as twenty articles where the authors have discussed innumerable issues and challenges as confronted by Indian immigrants due to their distance and dislocation from their familiar homeland to the alien hostland irrespective of what kind of exile they follow forced or voluntary Apart from bringing into surface the migratory problems the anthology also sheds light on the complexities that arise out of such migration Some of the notable Indian writers who have been given room in this book are V S Naipaul Amitav Ghosh Rohinton Mistry Jhumpa Lahiri Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni Anita Desai and Kiran Desai to name a few Authors have tried to give their best outputs to reach this anthology to its intended goal Hopefully this book will be helpful to both students and scholars alike      Writing Imagined Diasporas Joel Kuortti, 2009-05-05 Joel Kuortti s Writing Imagined Diasporas South Asian Women Reshaping North American Identity is a study of diasporic South Asian women writers It argues that the diasporic South Asians are not merely assimilating to their host cultures but they are also actively reshaping them through their own new voices bringing new definitions of identity As diaspora does not emerge as a mere sociological fact but it becomes what it is because it is said to be what it is the writings of imagined diasporas challenge national discourses Diaspora brings to mind various contested ideas and images It can be a positive site for the affirmation of an identity or conversely a negative site of fears of losing that identity Diaspora signals an engagement with a matrix of diversity of cultures languages histories people places times What distinguishes diaspora from some other types of travel is its centripetal dimension It does not only mean that people are dispersed in different places but that they congregate in other places forming new communities In such gatherings new allegiances are forged that supplant earlier commitments New imagined communities arise that not simply substitute old ones but form a hybrid space in between various identifications This book looks into the ways in which diasporic Indian literature handles these issues In the context of diaspora there is an imaginative construction of collective identity in the making That a given diaspora comes to be seen as a community is the result of a process of imagining at the same time creating new marginalities hybridities and dependencies resulting in multiple marginalizations hyphenizations and demands for allegiance The study concentrates on eleven contemporary women writers from the United States and Canada who write on South Asian diasporic experiences The writers are Ramabai Espinet Jhumpa Lahiri Amulya Malladi Sujata Massey Bharati Mukherjee Uma Parameswaran Kirin Narayan Anita Rau Badami

Robbie Clipper Sethi Shauna Singh Baldwin and Vineeta Vijayaraghavan      Pluriel Marc Charron, Seymour Mayne, Christiane Melançon, 2008-03-29 Ce livre réunit en version originale ainsi qu'en traduction une sélection de poèmes qui mettent en jeu les notions d'identité et d'altérité au Canada. Ils y contiennent des textes d'auteurs des deux principales communautés linguistiques du pays mais aussi de poètes autochtones ou migrants. La pluralité des voix, la diversité des lectures possibles et la richesse du matériau montrent bien que l'identité et l'altérité constituent un horizon ouvert, signe d'une société en évolution, donc bien vivante. Pluriel provides a composite snapshot taken from a few particular angles of the variety of poems written in Canada over the past few decades. In shaping this anthology, the editors were attracted to the diverse cultural and social responses evident in the work of poets writing in English and French both across Canada and in particular in Quebec and other French-speaking regions of the country. Each poem is offered in its original language and in translation.      The Robbie Burns Revival & Other Stories Cecilia Kennedy, 2004 These linked short stories tell the tales of Tony Aardehuis, a young Ontario police officer who centres more on the human puzzle than on crime and detection. Fraud, theft, blackmail, every small town crime short of murder drives these stories to conclusions that usually warm the heart. Along the way, Tony struggles like the rest of us to figure it all out. The first Tony Aardehuis story was inspired by the Eastern Ontario ice storm of 1998 and the suggestion that natural disaster might double as a murder weapon. This constable meets life with a fine blend of curiosity, compassion, and an occasional bent for bending the rules. Tony Aardehuis's adventures have been published in The Grist Mill, Bone Dance, and Storyteller Magazine, where he twice won The Great Canadian Story Contest. One story is also shortlisted for a 2003 Arthur Ellis Award.      The Routledge Encyclopedia of Indian Writing in English Manju Jaidka, Tej N. Dhar, 2023-09-29 Today Indian writing in English is a field of study that cannot be overlooked. Whereas at the turn of the 20th century writers from India who chose to write in English were either unheeded or underrated, with time the literary world has been forced to recognize and accept their contribution to the corpus of world literatures in English. Showcasing the burgeoning field of Indian English writing, this encyclopedia documents the poets, novelists, essayists, and dramatists of Indian origin since the pre-independence era and their dedicated works. Written by internationally recognized scholars, this comprehensive reference book explores the history and development of Indian writers, their major contributions, and the critical reception accorded to them. The Routledge Encyclopedia of Indian Writing in English will be a valuable resource to students, teachers, and academics navigating the vast area of contemporary world literature.      Postcards from Ex-lovers Jo-Anne Elder, 2005 Winner of the inaugural David Adams Richards Prize, Postcards from Ex-Lovers is a collection of flash fiction from the lives of women who need to move on. The stories pull apart the clichés passed between lovers, catch bits of gossip from cafés across the street from a historical monument, and replay old refrains. Offering an edgy but not quite jaded look at relationships at the turn of the new century, Jo Anne Elder gives postcard stories a woman's voice and introduces business card fiction.      Starting from Promise Lorne Dufour, 2004      The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Asian American
