The Cambridge Introduction to Contemporary American Fiction Stacey Olster, 2017-06-09 The Cambridge Introduction to Contemporary American Fiction explores fiction written over the last thirty years in the context of the profound political historical and cultural changes that have distinguished the contemporary period Focusing on both established and emerging writers and with chapters devoted to the American historical novel regional realism the American political novel the end of the Cold War and globalization 9 11 borderlands and border identities race and the legacy of postmodern aesthetics this Introduction locates contemporary American fiction at the intersection of a specific time and long standing traditions In the process it investigates the entire concept of what constitutes an American author while exploring the vexed yet resilient nature of what the concept of home has come to signify in so much writing today This wide ranging study will be invaluable to students instructors and general readers alike

Novel History Mark C. Carnes, 2004-03-05 Historical fiction is a contradiction in terms History is what happened fiction what did not Yet great novelists have often disregarded this logical difficulty taking up the tools of the historian to explore the shadowy recesses of the past Their labors have brought forth many literary treasures But how accurately do these masterpieces of the imagination reflect the past In Novel History twenty accomplished historians consider this question in relation to some of our most important historical novels Their essays are followed in most instances by a response from the novelist These dialogues illuminate one of the most fascinating and perplexing issues of our time the relation between the real past and our finest imaginative renderings of it Novel History includes essays by distinguished historians such as John Demos Michael Kammen Joan D Hedrick John Lukacs Eugene D Genovese Richard White and Tom Wicker and responses from notable novelists including Gore Vidal John Updike Russell Banks Don DeLillo Larry McMurtry Jane Smiley Madison Smartt Bell William Styron T Coraghessan Boyle William Kennedy Charles Frazier Thomas Fleming and Tim O Brien Novel
