LaBarge, 2019-09-22 America's strength has always been her people Never has this strength been more evident than in time of war From the Revolution on the history of America at war has always been the history of ordinary men and women doing extraordinary things But in the past it has taken years sometimes even decades for those heroic men and women to be heard for their individual stories to be told In the current era with electronic media making the news instantaneously available around the world one would think that would no longer be the case In America s latest war the electronic media brought us only the men and women at the top leaders like General Schwarzkopf General Kelly and Pete Williams the official voice of the Pentagon But the real stories the stories of courage under fire were half a world away in Khafji and Dhahran Basra and the barren wastes of the Iraqi desert The stories were there because America s men and women were there with M 16s and artillery in tanks and in attack aircraft in the tents and in the trenches Every service was represented Army Navy Air Force and U S Coast Guard The career soldiers were there and so were the citizen soldiers of the reserves These are their stories told in their own way These are the Desert Voices

New to this edition: A new preface noting slang trends of the last five years; Over 1,000 new entries from the US, UK and Australia; New terms from the language of social networking. Many entries now revised to include new dating, new citations from written sources and new glosses.
