He tells about his time in the US Marine Corps where he was filled with a renewed sense of pride that helped him climb out of the abyss into which he had fallen. It taught him to value people not by their color or nationality but by their effort and desire. Vietnam gave him the desire to live again. There were incidents where he should have been killed but walked away without a scratch. There were incidents where he was at the edge of his sanity and someone stepped in to keep him from doing something that would have destroyed his life. Vietnam helped simplify the equation of the relationship of people to people in his eyes. They needed one another at a crucial time and didn't care whether they were White, Black, Hispanic, or Asian. It also taught him that in each of us there is a battle raging between good and evil and if we are not careful the evil can win. Go back with him to the early 1950s and walk the path he walked. In Hot Joseph L. Hutton, Jr., 2025-03-19. Told through the eyes of a Marine Lieutenant who dropped out of college, this autobiography recounts the Vietnam tour of Joseph L. Hutton Jr. in his own words. Joining the Marine Corps and then working his way up, Hutton provides an inside the wire and sometimes humorous, often exciting look at the life and daily routine of a Marine Aviation Lieutenant flying the UH-1E Helicopter. As he and his friends fought an unpopular war, these young men fought hard, played hard, suffered personal losses and enjoyed successes together while suffering the hardship of separation from their loved ones. As members of Marine Light Helicopter Squadron 167, the only Marine Helicopter squadron ever formed in combat and at one time the largest helicopter squadron in the Marine Corps, they faced difficult conditions and accomplished significant missions while working short handed and under the pressure of adverse weather and significant enemy resistance. They performed the unlikely and accomplished the near impossible, developing their own tactics and procedures while receiving conflicting guidance from the ever-changing leadership, all done without recognition or reward. Illustrated throughout with images from the author's private collection, this autobiography presents the story of Hutton and the brave young men with whom he served. Voices of the Foreign Legion Adrian D. Gilbert, 2014-07-01. The French Foreign Legion has built a reputation as one of the world's most formidable and colorful military institutions. Established as a means of absorbing foreign troublemakers, the Legion spearheaded French colonialism in North Africa during the nineteenth century. Accepting volunteers from all parts of the world, the Legion acquired an aura of mystery and a less than enviable reputation for extreme brutality within its ranks. Voices of the Foreign Legion explores how the Legion selects its recruits, their native lands, and why these warriors seek a life full of hardship and danger. It analyzes the Legion's brutal attitude toward discipline, questions why desertion has been a perennial problem, and assesses the Legion's remarkable military achievements since its formation in the year 1831. This is the real story of the Legion, featuring firsthand accounts from the men who have fought in its ranks. Its scope ranges from the conquest of the colonies in Africa and the Far East through the horrors of the two world wars to the bitter but ultimately hopeless battle to maintain France's far-flung imperial possessions. The story is brought fully up to date with accounts and anecdotes from those contemporary foreign legionnaires who continue to fight for French interests around the globe.

Deeply Dug in Robert L. Barth, 2003 Thirty five years ago R L Barth was a Marine patrol leader in the First Reconnaissance Battalion in Vietnam Today he is a poet's poet who articulates the harsh realities and ironies of war in the style of the great classical satirists Barth writes about Vietnam but his soldier's take on the war is startlingly applicable to the conflicts of the twenty first century or to any war that happens to be going on I never once saw dying eyes That were not stunned or shattered by surprise That is just as it is never mind all the dulce et decorum exhortations of politicians who today as always clamor to kill us all In this slender but rich collection of poems R L Barth proves himself a worthy descendant of Martial and Archilochus lobbing grenades at what Kenneth Rexroth called the Social Lie capturing moments of grace and disgrace in combat and locating the Homeric nobility of ordinary soldiers under fire As he does he honors the language Read him eyes wide open and understand Gregory McNamee editor of The Desert Reader An inventive and resourceful poet very discreet his lines are built out of images balanced by concepts each giving weight to the other Poet or not Barth was in charge of an elite fighting group that stayed out longer than other units Many died including a friend of Barth's memorialized in Elegy for a Dead Friend one
