Swimming The Globe:

Undressed Toronto Dale Barbour, 2021-10-01 Undressed Toronto looks at the life of the swimming hole and considers how Toronto turned boys skinny dipping into comforting anti modernist folk figures By digging into the vibrant social life of these spaces Barbour challenges narratives that pollution and industrialization in the nineteenth century destroyed the relationship between Torontonians and their rivers and waterfront Instead we find that these areas were co opted and transformed into recreation spaces often with the acceptance of indulgent city officials While we take the beach for granted today it was a novel form of public space in the nineteenth century and Torontonians had to decide how it would work in their city To create a public beach bathing needed to be transformed from the predominantly nude male privilege that it had been in the mid nineteenth century into an activity that women and men could participate in together That transformation required negotiating and establishing rules for how people would dress and behave when they bathed and setting aside or creating distinct environments for bathing Undressed Toronto challenges assumptions about class the urban environment and the presentation of the naked body It explores anxieties about modernity and masculinity and the weight of nostalgia in public perceptions and municipal regulation of public bathing in five Toronto environments that showcase distinct moments in the transition from vernacular bathing to the public beach the city s central waterfront Toronto Island the Don River the Humber River and Sunnyside Beach on Toronto s western shoreline The Monitor Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph Company, 1919

Man vs Ocean - One Man's Journey to Swim The World's Toughest Oceans Adam Walker, 2017-01-05 Adam Walker is not your everyday record breaking sportsman He took on arguably the toughest extreme sport on the planet to swim non stop across seven of the world s deadliest oceans wearing only swim trunks cap and goggles It is not a test for the faint hearted In 2007 Adam then a toaster salesman was inspired by a film about a man attempting to change his life by swimming the English Channel to try to emulate the feat After a year of rigorous training without a coach Adam achieved his goal in 11 hours 35 minutes despite a ruptured bicep tendon leading to medical advice to give up long distance swimming In 2011 after two operations and a change to his swimming style to take pressure off his injured shoulder he became the first Briton to achieve a two way crossing from Spain to Morocco and back In the process he broke the British record one way Shortly afterwards the Ocean s Seven challenge was born a gruelling equivalent to the Seven Summits mountaineering challenge At first it seemed that injury would prevent Adam from participating but ignoring medical advice he developed an innovative technique the Ocean Walker stroke that would enable him to continue with the ultimate aim of completing this seemingly impossible feat Whether man would triumph over ocean or fail in the attempt forms the core of this extraordinary autobiography Always intriguing sometimes terrifying and occasionally very funny Adam s story is about sport in its truest form rather than competitions between teams and individuals it is about man against nature and against his own failings and demons In that it is truly inspirational
