Johnny Mercer Glenn T. Eskew, 2013-11-15 John Herndon Johnny Mercer 1909-76 remained in the forefront of American popular music from the 1930s through the 1960s writing over a thousand songs collaborating with all the great popular composers and jazz musicians of his day working in Hollywood and on Broadway and as cofounder of Capitol Records helping to promote the careers of Nat King Cole Margaret Whiting Peggy Lee and many other singers Mercer's songs sung by Bing Crosby Billie Holiday Judy Garland Frank Sinatra Ella Fitzgerald Tony Bennett Lena Horne and scores of other performers are canonical parts of the great American songbook Four of his songs received Academy Awards Moon River Days of Wine and Roses On the Atchison Topeka and the Santa Fe and In the Cool Cool of the Evening Mercer standards such as Hooray for Hollywood and You Must Have Been a Beautiful Baby remain in the popular imagination Exhaustively researched Glenn T. Eskew's biography improves upon earlier popular treatments of the Savannah Georgia born songwriter to produce a sophisticated insightful evenhanded examination of one of America's most popular and successful chart toppers Johnny Mercer Southern Songwriter for the World provides a compelling chronological narrative that places Mercer within a larger framework of diaspora entertainers who spread a southern multiracial culture across the nation and around the world Eskew contends that Mercer and much of his music remained rooted in his native South being deeply influenced by the folk music of coastal Georgia and the blues and jazz recordings made by black and white musicians At Capitol Records Mercer helped redirect American popular music by commodifying these formerly distinctive regional sounds into popular music When rock n roll diminished opportunities at home Mercer looked abroad collaborating with international composers to create transnational songs At heart Eskew says Mercer was a jazz musician rather than a Tin Pan Alley lyricist and the interpenetration of jazz and popular song that he created expressed elements of his southern heritage that made his work distinctive and consistently kept his music before an approving audience

The Autism of Gxd Ruth M. Dunster, 2022-12-02 The Autism of Gxd An Atheological Love Story is truly a love story the story of Ruth Dunster's autistic search for an authentic personal and theological Gxd In this it resembles Augustine's Confessions as a theological autobiography It becomes atheological however as Dunster reckons with what Denys Turner terms The Darkness of God This awareness leads her through the poetry of Medieval mystics to the mythic death of God theology of Thomas J J Altizer The search for faith is nonetheless very real in this strange territory Dunster hears her autistic Gxd speaking in art poetry novels and music and this further leads her into the territory of Literature Theology and the Arts where in Blanchot's words the answer is the poem's absence Indeed Dunster calls the book a strange poem or even a hymn Weaving an autistic mythology out of a rigorous survey of clinical autism this book abounds in challenge and paradox It offers a fascinating view into how an autistic poet becomes a theologian and what more mainstream theologies might learn from this disabled Gxd      The Port of New York, N.Y. and N.J.: General data United States.
