Canons in Conflict James E. Brenneman, 1997-05-29 In this new study James Brenneman confronts the issue of conflicting canons with full force incorporating insights gained from both literary and biblical disciplines on the question of canon He begins with an illuminating tour through contemporary literary theory from Hans Robert Jauss to Stanley Fish and current discussions in theology about the canon He goes on to a consideration of true and false prophesy with a detailed examination of the three apparently conflicting versions of the Old Testament swords into plowshares prophesy as found in Isaiah 2 2 4 5 Joel 4 9 12 Eng 3 9 12 and Micah 4 1 5 Suggesting that the dynamics controlling the process for negotiating between contradictory readings of prophetic texts are the same as those at work in adjudicating between canons in conflict Brenneman concludes by pointing the way towards an integrative approach appropriate to the question of canon and authority in a post modern pluralistic context

Gradual failure : the air war over North Vietnam 1965-1966 Jacob Van Staaveren, 2002 Of the many facets of the American war in Southeast Asia debated by U S authorities in Washington by the military services and the public none has proved more controversial than the air war against North Vietnam The air war s inauguration with the nickname Rolling Thunder followed an eleven year American effort to induce communist North Vietnam to sign a peace treaty without openly attacking its territory Thus Rolling Thunder was a new military program in what had been a relatively low key attempt by the United States to win the war within South Vietnam against insurgent communist Viet Cong forces aided and abetted by the north The present volume covers the first phase of the Rolling Thunder campaign from March 1965 to late 1966 It begins with a description of the planning and execution of two initial limited air strikes nicknamed Flaming Dart I and II The Flaming Dart strikes were carried out against North Vietnam in February 1965 as the precursors to a regular albeit limited Rolling Thunder air program launched the following month Before proceeding with an account of Rolling Thunder its roots are traced in the events that compelled the United States to adopt an anti communist containment policy in Southeast Asia after the defeat of French forces by the communist Vietnamese in May 1954
