Desire and De-Scriptio Zsófia Bán, 2023-12-28 This volume without negating Williams strong ties with modernism intends to dislodge this deeply ingrained critical positioning by presenting him as an overlooked figure in the emerging tradition of postmodernism The study advances the claim that Williams clearly recognized this nascent discourse and rather than pursuing his earlier mode of writing consciously sought a new language for a rapidly changing cultural context Drawing on wide ranging multidisciplinary critical texts this book will be of interest not only to Williams scholars but to all those who continue to be intrigued by the elusive boundaries between word and image as well as modernism and postmodernism

Names, Proverbs, Riddles, and Material Text in Robert Frost T. O'Brien, 2010-07-19 This study examines several unexplored aspects of the poetry of Robert Frost one of the most widely read and studied American poets and shows how they contribute to the reader's experience and modernism in general Tropes, Parables, and Performatives J. Hillis Miller, 1991-12-06 Tropes Parables Performatives collects J Hillis Miller's essays on seven major twentieth century authors Lawrence Kafka Stevens Williams Woolf Hardy and Conrad For all their evident differences these essays from early to late explore a single intuition about literature which may be framed by three words trope parable and performative Throughout these essays Miller is fascinated with the tropological dimension of literary language with the way figures of speech turn aside the telling of a story or the presentation of a literary theme The exploration of this turning leads to the recognition that all works of literature are parabolic thrown beside their real meaning They tell one story but call forth something else Miller further agrees that all parables are fundamentally performative They do not merely name something or give knowledge but rather use words to make something happen to get the reader from here to there Each essay here attempts to formulate what in a given case the reader performatively enters by way of parabolic trope Poems, chiefly Pastoral John CUNNINGHAM (Poet.), 1766 Myth and Legend in French Literature Keith Aspley, David Bellos, Peter Sharratt, 1982
