Jensen, 2012-09-20 Sydney's evangelical Anglicans have been the focus of a great deal of controversy and criticism in the Anglican world Their blend of conservatism towards doctrine and radicalism towards the institutional church has made them something of an enigma to other Anglicans But what makes them really tick Michael Jensen provides a unique insider's view into the convictional world of Sydney Anglicanism He responds to a number of the common misunderstandings about Sydney Anglicanism and challenges Sydney Anglicans to see themselves as making a positive contribution to the wider church and to the city they inhabit The Oxford History of Anglicanism Anthony Milton, Jeremy Gregory, Rowan Strong, Jeremy Morris, William L. While to some it is a beacon in the darkness to others it is like a threatening bushfire It is very large very wealthy and very influential in other places Its opposition to ordaining women priests and in many parishes to women preaching mystifies and angers many Anglicans within and outside its boundaries What makes this diocese such a phenomenon The answer lies in its history in the men and women who shaped it in a particular view of the authority of the Bible and in the influence wielded by some powerful institutions that have prospered Its energy comes from the Scriptural mandate for mission to bring the outsider into the community of Christian people but not to leave it there To educate them in the knowledge of Christ in a variety of creative and imaginative ways This book also looks at what Sydney has done badly It may help readers to learn from its past achievements and its mistakes Foundations of Anglican Evangelicalism in Victoria Wei-Han

Kuan,2019-05-20 For more than half a century the Anglican Diocese of Melbourne was unquestionably the most rigorously evangelical and missions oriented diocese in Australia The Diocese of Sydney in that same period was decidedly broader in theological and liturgical practice How and why did Melbourne move in one direction while Sydney in the other This study suggests that the answers are to be found in four vital contributors local churches evangelical societies theological colleges and diocesan bishops For three broad periods of history between 1847 and 1937 the presence of these four contributors is uncovered described and evaluated for the Diocese of Melbourne Evangelical activism theological reflection and leadership are each shown in their contemporary contexts to help us understand how people with gospel passion sought to respond faithfully to their times This is the question of vision leadership and strategy at the heart of this study What makes for long term evangelical continuity over a hundred year period Sydney Anglicans and the Threat to World Anglicanism Muriel Porter,2017-05-15 Sydney Anglicans always ultra conservative in terms of liturgy theology and personal morality have increasingly modelled themselves on sixteenth century English Puritanism Over the past few decades they have added radical congregationalism to the mix They have altered church services challenged church order and relentlessly opposed all attempts to ordain women as priests let alone bishops Muriel Porter unpacks how Australia s largest and until recently richest diocese developed its ideological fervour and explores the impact it is having both in Australia and the Anglican Communion Sydney's One Special Evangelist Baden P. Stace,2022-08-04 This landmark work is the first academic study of a figure who played a defining role in the Australian evangelical movement of the late twentieth century the inimitable preacher evangelist and churchman John C Chapman The study situates Chapman s career within the secularizing Western cultures of the post 1960s a period bringing momentous changes to the social and religious fabric of Western society At the same time global Evangelicalism was reviving bringing vitality to large swathes in the Global South and a re balancing in Western societies as conservative religious movements experienced growth and even renewal amidst wider secularizing trends Against this backdrop the study explores the way in which across a wide array of domestic and international fora Chapman contended for the soteriological priority of the gospel in Christian life mission and thought Accomplished via an absorbing blend of personal wit impassioned oratory innovative missiological strategy and striking theological perception the result was a stimulating history of public advocacy that sought a revival of confidence in Evangelicalism's message and a constantly reforming vision of Evangelicalism's method Such a legacy marks Chapman as a central figure within the generation of postwar leaders whose work has given Australian Evangelicalism its contemporary shape and dynamism
