organizations advanced education for craftspeople and exhibition and promotional opportunities have contributed to the distinct evolution of professional craft in Canada over the past forty years. Alföldy focuses on 1964-74 and the debates over distinctions between professional self-taught and amateur craftspeople and between one of a kind and traditional craft objects. She deals extensively with key people and events including American philanthropist Aileen Osborn Webb and Canadian philanthropist Joan Chalmers, the foundation of the World Crafts Council 1964 and the Canadian Crafts Council 1974, the Canadian Fine Crafts exhibition at Expo 67 and the In Praise of Hands exhibition of 1974. Drawing upon a wealth of previously unexploited materials, this richly documented survey includes descriptions and illustrations of significant works and identifies the challenges that lie ahead for professional crafts in Canada.
