Levinson, 1987-02-27 This study is about the principles for constructing polite speeches The core of it first appeared in Questions and Politeness edited by Esther N Goody now out of print It is here reissued with a fresh introduction that surveys the considerable literature in linguistics psychology and the social sciences that the original extended essay stimulated and suggests distinct directions for research The authors describe and account for some remarkable parallelisms in the linguistic construction of utterances with which people express themselves in different languages and cultures A motive for these parallels is isolated and a universal model is constructed outlining the abstract principles underlying polite usages This is based on the detailed study of three unrelated languages and cultures the Tamil of South India the Tzeltal spoken by Mayan Indians in Chiapas Mexico and the English of the USA and England This volume will be of special interest to students in linguistic pragmatics sociolinguistics applied linguistics anthropology and the sociology and social psychology of interaction      Words and Processes in Mambila Kinship David Zeitlyn, 2005-01-01 Words and Processes in Mambila Kinship presents a set of studies of the way that Mambila speakers in Cameroon talk about themselves and their kin Author David Zeitlyn employs conversational analytic methods to further the study of kinship terminologies This book takes an important step toward a new synthesis between the practice of ethnography and the study of language while presenting African natural language data still rare in mainstream linguistics in an accessible format      Ibbs: Anthropology: 1978 International Committee for Social Science Information and Documentation, 1990-12-31 First published in 1981 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company      Theory Groups and the Study of Language in North America Stephen O. Murray, 1994 Theory Groups in the Study of Language in North America provides a detailed social history of traditions and revolutionary challenges to traditions within North American linguistics especially within 20th century anthropological linguistics After showing substantial differences between Bloomfield s and neo Bloomfieldian theorizing Murray shows that early transformational generative work on syntax grew out of neo Bloomfieldian structuralism and was promoted by neo Bloomfieldian gatekeepers in particular longtime Language editor Bernard Bloch The central case studies of the book contrast the increasingly revolutionary rhetoric of transformational generative grammarians with rhetorics of continuity emitted by two linguistic anthropology groupings that began simultaneously with TGG in the late 1950s the ethnography of communication and ethnoscience The Influence of Language on Culture and Thought Robert L. Cooper, Bernard J.
