Symbolism An International Journal Of Critical Aesthetics Volume Two 2:

Symbols in Stanley Kubrick's Movie 'Eyes Wide Shut' Carolin Ruwe,2007-11 Eyes Wide Shut is open to several interpretations none of which fits perfectly to all parts and aspects of the film And this is exactly what makes the movie so intriguing its ambiguity and loose ends which leave interpretation to the viewer

Radicalizing Lawrence Robert Burden,2021-12-28 In this study of D H Lawrence and critical theory Robert Burden pays particular attention to the critical formations that underpin the reception history of the main novels including the much maligned leadership novels because strong readings have always contested the meaning and significance of Lawrence and because there has been a persistent reluctance to approach his writing through post structuralist theory This study demonstrates in some detail that once Lawrence s texts are the objects of the newer critical paradigms their principles of coherence are understood differently and that older notions of textual unity are displaced by aesthetic structures of degrees of generic and linguistic destabilization This enables a radicalizing of Lawrence s fiction by drawing out its deconstructive effects on his myth making and essentialist notions of the self The sexual identities represented in the fiction are read as experiments or thought adventures as Lawrence himself characterized his work The different approaches to Lawrence s writing in this study lead to a radical reassessment of his relationship to Modernism especially in the light of the more elastic concept of Modernism in recent discussion and one which traditional Lawrence scholars have ignored What emerges is a more self deconstructive Lawrence with some surprising results

Art, Aesthetics and International Justice Marina Aksenova, 2025-03-31 This book demonstrates that art is implicit in the process of administration of international justice The diverse nature of recent global threats as well as an overwhelming pull towards isolationism and nationalism challenge the dominant deterrence paradigm of international governance created in the aftermath of the Second World War An alternative model is to focus on cooperation and not deterrence as a guiding operational principle This volume focuses on the theoretical component linking justice with aesthetics as well as on the practical manifestation of such connection evident inter alia in the rhetoric of international courts their architectural design and their commemorative practices expressed by the practice of symbolic reparations adopted by some of the courts The underlying premise of the book is that international justice requires new vocabulary and new approaches which can be derived from the study of aesthetics It is held that exploring the aesthetical dimension of international justice contributes to the discussion on the foundations of its authority and the grounds for compliance with it The work engages deeply with the theory of aesthetics developed by Immanuel Kant and Abhinavagupta a Kashmiri critic philosopher and scholar writing in the early eleventh century The book will be of interest to academics and researchers working in the areas of Legal Philosophy International Criminal Justice and International Law and International Relations A Companion to British and Irish Cinema John Hill, 2019-05-07 A stimulating overview of the intellectual arguments and critical debates involved in the study of British and Irish cinemas British and Irish film studies have expanded in scope and depth in recent years prompting a growing number of critical debates on how these cinemas are analysed contextualized and understood A Companion to British and Irish Cinema addresses arguments surrounding film historiography methods of textual analysis critical judgments and the social and economic contexts that are central to the study of these cinemas Twenty nine essays from many of the most prominent writers in the field examine how British and Irish cinema have been discussed the concepts and methods used to interpret and understand British and Irish films and the defining issues and debates at the heart of British and Irish cinema studies Offering a broad scope of commentary the Companion explores historical cultural and aesthetic questions that encompass over a century of British and Irish film studies from the early years of the silent era to the present day Divided into five sections the Companion discusses the social and cultural forces shaping British and Irish cinema during different periods the contexts in which films are produced distributed and exhibited the genres and styles that have been adopted by British and Irish films issues of representation and identity and debates on concepts of national cinema at a time when ideas of what constitutes both British and Irish cinema are under question A Companion to British and Irish Cinema is a valuable and timely resource for undergraduate and postgraduate students of film media and cultural studies and for those seeking contemporary commentary on the cinemas of Britain and Ireland The Journal of Commonwealth Literature ,2005 One number each year includes Annual bibliography of Commonwealth literature Critical Branding Caroline Koegler,2018-03-13 Critical Branding Postcolonial Studies and the Market provides an original answer to what Sarah Brouillette has called postcolonial studies longstanding materialist challenge illuminating the relationship between what is often broadly called the market and the practice and positionality of postcolonial critics and their field postcolonial studies After much attention has been paid to the status of literary writers in markets and after a range of sweeping attacks against the field for its alleged complicity with capitalism this study takes the crucial step of systematically exploring the engagement of postcolonial critics in market practice substituting an automatic sense of accusation Dirlik dread Westall Brouillette rage Young Williams or irony Huggan Ponzanesi Mendes with a nuanced exploration and critique Bringing together concepts from business studies postcolonial studies queer studies and literary and cultural studies in an informed way Critical Branding sets on a thorough theoretical footing a range of categories that while increasingly current remain surprisingly obscure such as the market market forces and branding It also provides new concepts with which to think the market as a dimension of practice such as brand narratives brand acts and brand politics At a time when the marketisation of the university system and the resulting effects on academics are much on our minds Critical Branding is a timely contribution that explores how diversely postcolonial studies and the market intersect for better and for worse Annual Report on English and American Studies ,2008 Leadership and Organisational Culture in Development Violeta Schubert,2022-07-14 This book uses organisational theory to explore how power and leadership operate in development organisations in different contexts and at different levels Culture as a tool for enacting change is of particular importance within organisational and leadership analysis but often limiting Notions of exceptionalism within the development sector mean that lessons from other organisational contexts are often disregarded or deemed irrelevant In examining the way that culture operates in organisational and leadership analysis and in development thinking and approaches the book invites closer attention to modes of organising and leading The book examines development exceptionalism and the leadership fetishism that it evokes as a panacea for addressing disorder and crisis The term organisationalism is deployed to capture the endeavours to control and manage produce and reproduce organisation and the manifestations responses and imprints of seeing like an organisation The modes and manifestations of organisationalism are especially notable in times of crisis and disorder accusations of wrongdoings bad culture and bad leadership This book makes an important contribution to debates on development exceptionalism and leadership and as such will be of interest to researchers in development studies and management studies and related disciplines across sociology politics and global governance Arts Education and

Sustainability in a Time of Crisis WoongJo Chang, Shin-Eui Park, 2025-03-04 This book is a result of the 4th UNESCO UNITWIN Symposium that took place in Seoul Korea on May 25 and 26 2021 Held online for the first time due to the Covid 19 pandemic distinguished arts management and cultural education scholars addressed a timely array of issues including the power of arts participation to transform behavior and perceptions inclusivity in arts education the disruptions and opportunities of the lockdown the power of arts creativity in broader problem solving the role of local arts educators on the transcultural horizon and the role of international cooperation in reconstituting vibrant national arts scenes Encompassing visual written and performance arts education from primary through higher education this book provides a unique window into the power of the arts to meet the harrowing tests we continue to face in the context of the global pandemic The book offers a unique perspective that is both international in scope and addresses local responses to an unprecedented global pandemic with an emphasis on the Korean and East Asian context Philosophical Questions in Art Education Dorit

Barchana-Lorand, 2025-08-21 This book examines the rationale of incorporating the arts in the school curriculum from a philosophical rather than pedagogical perspective Educational resources are frequently under scrutiny and education policy makers wish to maximize the use of public funds and children s time at school leaving the arts as a lower priority To understand the logic behind this Lorand revisits milestones in the history of the philosophy of art to address core questions in art education namely what are the challenges of teaching the arts And why teach the arts at all Lorand draws on the work of a broad range of philosophers including Dewey Eisner Greene Hume Plato Kant Langer Read and Schiller The book aims to show how attempts to justify art as a tool for societal and individual improvement fail in advocating art education Ultimately she claims that the arts should be taught because children have the right to receive art education That right stems from the unique nature of art

As You Law It - Negotiating Shakespeare Daniela Carpi, François Ost, 2018-10-08 Shakespeare was fascinated by law which permeated Elizabethan everyday life The general impression one derives from the analysis of many plays by Shakespeare is that of a legal situation in transformation and of a dynamically changing relation between law and society law and the jurisdiction of Renaissance times Shakespeare provides the kind of literary supplement that can better illustrate the legal texts of the sixteenth and early seventeenth centuries There was a strong popular participation in the system of justice and late sixteenth century playwrights often made use of forensic models of narrative Uncertainty about legal issues represented a rich potential for causing strong reactions in the public especially feelings concerning the resistance to tyranny The volume aims at highlighting some of the many legal perspectives and debates emplotted in Shakespearean plays also taking into consideration the many texts that have been produced during the latest years on law and literature in the Renaissance Beyond Borders Ramón Plo-Alastrué, María Jesús Martínez-Alfaro, 2002 Developing Literacy and the Arts in Schools Georgina Barton, 2019-07-31 The teaching of the arts and literacy in schools is often at odds with one another The desire for schools to improve results on high stakes testing can lead to a narrow view of literacy rather than one that acknowledges the unique and distinct literacies that exist in other curriculum areas including the arts With methods of communication becoming increasingly complex it will be more and more important for students to be able to utilise all semiotic modes Developing Literacy and the Arts in Schools investigates this key issue in education and offers a solution to the negative relationship between the arts and literacy Drawing on interview data and evidence from diverse classrooms it explores the pedagogies of effective arts practitioners and teachers and how they relate to theoretical frameworks to unpack the key elements of effective practice related to literacy and the arts A model of arts literacies is provided to assist arts and literacy educators in developing a common language that acknowledges and values these distinct arts literacies Themes of multimodality diversity aesthetics and reflection in relation to the arts and literacy are foregrounded throughout This book will be of great value to postgraduate students of Education specialising in arts and literacy education academics teacher educators and classroom and preservice teachers The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Literature Richard Bradford, Madelena Gonzalez, Stephen Butler, James Ward, Kevin De Ornellas, 2020-09-03 THE WILEY BLACKWELL COMPANION TO CONTEMPORARY BRITISH AND IRISH LITERATURE An insightful guide to the exploration of modern British and Irish literature The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Literature is a must have guide for anyone hoping to navigate the world of new British and Irish writing Including modern authors and poets from the 1960s through to the 21st century the Companion provides a thorough overview of contemporary poetry fiction and drama by some of the most prominent and noteworthy writers Seventy three comprehensive chapters focus on individual authors as well as such topics as Englishness and identity contemporary Science Fiction Black writing in Britain crime fiction and the influence of globalization on British and Irish Literature Written in four parts The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Literature includes comprehensive examinations of individual authors as well as a variety of themes that have come to define the contemporary period ethnicity gender nationality and more A thorough guide to the main figures and concepts in contemporary literature from Britain and Ireland this two volume set Includes studies of notable figures such as Seamus Heaney and Angela Carter as well as more recently influential writers such as Zadie Smith and Sarah Waters Covers topics such as LGBT fiction androgyny in contemporary British Literature and post Troubles Northern Irish Fiction Features a broad range of writers and topics covered by distinguished academics Includes an analysis of the interplay between individual authors and the major themes of the day and whether an examination of the latter enables us to appreciate the former The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Literature provides essential reading for students as well as academics seeking to learn more about the history and future direction of contemporary British and Irish Literature Current Contents Institute for Scientific Information (Philadelphia),2002 Symbolism ,2002 The Oxford Handbook of Critical Improvisation Studies George Lewis,Benjamin Piekut,2016 V 1 Cognitions v 2 Critical theories
