Be a Man - Take Responsibility for Your Actions Clark Covey, 2016-03-22 We all tell white lies to others and even worse to ourselves. We do something wrong and instead of acknowledging it, learning from it and moving on, we lie saying it was due to circumstances outside ourselves. Each one should test his own actions. Then he can take pride in himself without comparing himself to somebody else, for each one should carry his own load. Gal 6:45 NIV, Genesis 3:12 NIV. The man said, "The woman you put here with me, she gave me some fruit from the tree and I ate it. As long as there has been a record of man, humans have chosen to blame someone else for their wrongdoings. For you and me, it does not have to be that way. We can change and take responsibilities for our own actions."

Never Take Advice from an Unscarred Man Dennis Kolb, 2011-07 In his new collection of short stories, author Dennis Kolb shares the wisdom that came laced with the bumps and bruises he earned along the way through his life. From hunting for whitetail deer to the challenges of looking for a job after leaving the navy, Kolb shares funny moments and challenging times with wit and humor. He knew he needed to be willing to make the mistakes and happily take his lumps as he journeyed toward his goal, a life well lived. Along the way, he imparts his own brand of wisdom, for example, you can't reason with animals or machines, and sometimes repeating the same action gets different results. He knows about humiliation and he knows about success he also knows that timing is everything In Never Take Advice from an Unscarred Man Kolb recalls his time as a small kid through the last half of the forties his crazy teen years his life in the navy and beyond The educational bruises and mistakes Kolb recounts have had far more influence on his happiness and success than any formal education could have In these charming homespun stories he offer memories of times past for all to experience and enjoy
