Taking these challenges head-on and with the backdrop that the term multiculturalism originated in Canada before going global, this collection of chapters presents a global comparative view of multiculturalism through both empirical and normative perspectives with the overarching aim of comprehending multiculturalism's promise, limitations, contemporary challenges, trajectory, and possible futures. Collectively, the chapters provide the basis for a critical assessment of multiculturalism's first 50 years as well as vital insight into whether multiculturalism is best equipped to meet the distinct challenges characterizing this juncture of the 21st century. With coverage including the Americas, Europe, Oceania, Africa, and Asia, and thematic coverage of citizenship, religion, security, gender, Black Lives Matter, and the post-pandemic order, Assessing Multiculturalism in Global Comparative Perspective presents a comprehensively global collection that is indispensable reading for scholars and students of diversity in the 21st century.
