Through My Enemy's Eyes Salim J Munayer, Lisa Loden, 2014-02-01 This book addresses the universal theological dimension of reconciliation in the context of the Israeli Messianic Jewish and Palestinian Christian divide Palestinian Christians and Israeli Messianic Jews share a belief in Jesus as the son of God and Messiah Often though that is all they have in common This remarkable book written in collaboration by a local Palestinian Christian and an Israeli Messianic Jew seeks to bridge this gap by addressing head on divisive theological issues as well as their political implications such as land covenant prophecy and eschatology which separate their two communities The struggle for reconciliation is painful and often extremely difficult for all of us This unique work seeks to show a way forward

COMMENDATIONS In a world that wants to see only one side of every conflict and this one especially where people believe only their own propaganda and where many Christians inhabit hard shells of theological political and apocalyptic certainties this book is a bravely different voice Rather it is two voices talking carefully honestly graciously respectfully and truthfully to each other as sisters and brothers in the Messiah should This is a unique conversation in which each partner Messianic Jewish Israeli and Palestinian Christian gives full expression to all that they are and think and feel about themselves and the conflict in their land We are treated to some stretching theological debate and some honest self criticism But above all we come to share the hope and courage that shines through the pain and struggle

Christopher J H Wright International Ministries Director Langham Partnership UK The Palestinian Israeli divide may be the most intractable conflict of our time With great courage honestly facing the turbulent political historical and theological landscape which authentic reconciliation must engage Munayer and Loden open up fresh space Given the divides between their communities this book is a remarkable achievement a cry of hope from the land where Jesus walked Chris Rice Director of the Center for Reconciliation Duke Divinity School USA

Urban Tourism in the Developing World Christian Myles Rogerson, Gustav Visser, Over the past decade the field of urban tourism has consolidated with the appearance of several books that concentrate upon the Western European and North American experience Recently the scope and range of urban research has widened considerably including the welcome appearance of studies that examine the tourism phenomenon in cities outside the Euro American heartland Despite this growing international body of debate and scholarship on tourism and cities particularly in the developed North literature that relates to the developing world as a whole and to Africa in particular remains sparse The task of Urban Tourism in the Developing World The South African Experience is to augment the current international scholarship concerning urban tourism in the developing world More especially the contributors draw attention to a range of case studies from South Africa that provide some starting points to address the uneven scholarly coverage of urban tourism the African context has received to date In addition the research material presented here seeks to contribute toward raising the South African and indeed the African profile within growing international scholarship concerning issues of urban tourism and development This collection aims to expand an emerging South African and African tourism research voice concerning the tourism and development nexus as well as to stem critiques that this body of research appears to have developed in a theoretical vacuum divorced from broader international tourism research discourses This collection of essays not only further develops an independent South African tourism perspective but also presents research that is closely tied to international urban tourism research debates In addition this analysis of urban tourism in the South African context enriches the rather Western oriented theories of urban tourism discourse through its emphasis on how urban tourism is evolving in urban Africa Christian M Rogerson is professor of human geography in the School of Geography Archaeology and Environmental Studies University of the Witwatersrand Johannesburg South Africa Gustav Visser is senior lecturer in human geography in the Department of Geography University of the Free State Bloemfontein South Africa
