Taking Our Places:

Taking Our Place John Cleverley, Janet Mooney, 2018-08-30 Taking Our Place tells the story of Aboriginal education and the Koori Centre at the University of Sydney Within its short history the university has embodied both the virtues and vices of Australia's public attitudes to Indigenous people The university's early teaching and research focused on Aboriginal people as ethnographical specimens a race frozen in time This is the first account of struggles and outcomes arising from the engagement of Indigenous people with a tertiary institution in Australia

Taking Our Places Norman Fischer, 2004-05-04 This engaging contemplation of maturity addresses the long neglected topic of what it means to grow up and provides a hands on guide for skilfully navigating the demands of our adult lives Growing up happens whether we like it or not but maturity must be cultivated Challenged to consider his own sense of maturity while mentoring a group of teenage boys Fischer began to investigate our preconceptions about what it means to be an adult and shows how crucial true maturity is to leading an engaged fulfilled life Taking Our Places details the marks of a mature person and shows how these attributes can help alleviate our suffering and enrich our relationships Discussing such qualities as awareness responsibility humour acceptance and humility Fischer brings a fresh and at times surprising new perspective that can turn old ideas on their heads and reinvigorate our understanding of what it means to be mature whereby there are rampant uncontrolled changes in cultures technologies economic policies and even people s religious lives is very urgent How is contextual theology relevant in the ever changing contexts of the church in Africa Indeed there are a number of challenges which contextual theology faces within the church in Africa which need to be addressed contextually Some such challenges include poverty rampant violence homosexuality alcoholism the resurgence of prosperity gospel materialistic prophets and incurable illnesses like Ebola HIV and AIDS and the current coronavirus COVID 19 However which context in Africa Context in Africa as in other parts of the world is always in flux it is complex and fluid There is no permanent context The experience of Jesus in such a changing context needs to be rediscovered depending on what transpires in each particular place at a particular time This book addresses some of the overarching challenges that face contextual theology and how such challenges should be addressed by the church in Africa in contemporary ever changing context for it to be relevant in Africa It also highlights the need to move from liberation and inculturation theologies to reconstruction theology in dealing with the challenges of the current church Hence the book is important to students and scholars engaging in practical systematic biblical and contextual theologies in all their branches
