Taking Place The Works Of Michael Elmgreen And Ingar Dragset:

The New Décor Ralph Rugoff, 2010 PREFACE These fleeting sketches are all republished by kind permission of the Editor of the DAILY NEWS in which paper they appeared They amount to no more than a sort of sporadic diary a diary recording one day in twenty which happened to stick in the fancy the only kind of diary the author has ever been able to keep Even that diary he could only keep by keeping it in public for bread and cheese But trivial as are the topics they are not utterly without a connecting thread of motive As the reader's eye strays with hearty relief from these pages it probably alights on something a bed post or a lamp post a window blind or a wall The Monumental Challenge of Preservation

Michele Valerie Cloonan, 2023-08-15 The enormous task of preserving the world's heritage in the face of war natural disaster vandalism neglect and technical obsolescence The monuments movable immovable tangible and intangible of the world's shared cultural heritage are at risk War terrorism natural disaster vandalism and neglect make the work of preservation a greater challenge than it has been since World War II In The Monumental Challenge of Preservation Michele Cloonan makes the case that at this critical juncture we must consider preservation in the broadest possible contexts Preservation requires the efforts of an increasing number of stakeholders In order to explore the cultural political technological economic and ethical dimensions of preservation Cloonan examines particular monuments and their preservation dilemmas The massive Bamiyan Buddhas blown up by the Taliban in 2001 are still the subject of debates over how or whether to preserve what remains and the U S National Park Service has undertaken the complex task of preserving the symbolic and often ephemeral objects that visitors leave at the Vietnam Veterans Memorial to take just two of the many examples described in the book Cloonan also considers the ongoing genocide and cultural genocide in Syria the challenges of preserving our digital heritage the dynamic between original and copy efforts to preserve the papers and architectural fragments of the architect Louis Sullivan and the possibility of sustainable preservation In the end Cloonan suggests we are what we preserve and don't preserve Every day we make preservation decisions individually and collectively that have longer term ramifications than we might expect Living Inside the Grid

New Museum of Contemporary Art (New York, N.Y.), Dan Cameron, 2003 A grid is an abstract simple mathematical structure ordered by ninety degree angles and regularly spaced columns and rows A grid is also the cities we live and work in the buildings that tower over us the electricity and fiber optic networks that sustain our energy and information needs We do as the title of this thematic catalogue suggests live inside the grid The pervasive grid based visual and information systems that have come to increasingly define contemporary life are explored here by 24 international artists for whom the grid is something very different than the motif it was for 20th century artists Artists include Absalon Jennifer Bolande Jose Damasceno Do Ho Su Luisa Lambri Langlands interlocking cultural linguistic and economic grids and soft grids Revisiting Holocaust Representation in the Post-Witness Era

Tanja Schult, Diana I. Popescu, 2015-07-28 This volume explores post 2000s artistic engagements with Holocaust memory arguing that imagination plays an increasingly important role in keeping the memory of the Holocaust vivid for contemporary and future audiences

Contemporary Art Biennials in Europe Nicolas Whybrow, 2020-09-17 Through its examination of five quite different art events in cities across Europe Contemporary Art Biennials in Europe offers a compelling exploration of how public art takes place in the modern city Roughly tracing a central horizontal trajectory from the western to the eastern edges of the continent Nicolas Whybrow considers the Folkestone Triennial in the UK Sculpture Projects Münster in Germany the Venice Biennale in Italy Belgrade's Mikser Festival in Serbia and the Istanbul Biennial in Turkey Writing within the context of a thirty year international biennial boom Whybrow interrogates the extent to which biennial events and their artworks seek to engage with the socio cultural and political complexity of cities in particular the work that is involved in this relationship With its focus on Europe he also tells a composite story of continental difference at a moment of high tension centering on issues of migration political populism and uncertainty around the future form of the European Union

Museum Space

Kali Tzortzi, 2016-03-09 Museums are among the iconic buildings of the twenty first century as remarkable for their architectural diversity as for the variety of collections they display But how does the architecture of museums affect our experience as visitors This book proposes that by seeing space as common ground between architecture and museology and so between the museum building and its display we can illuminate the individuality of each museum and the distinctive experience it offers for example how some museums create a sense of personal exploration while others are more intensely didactic and how the visit in some cases is transformed into a spatial experience and in other cases into a more social event The book starts with an overview of the history of museum buildings and display strategies and a discussion of theoretical and critical approaches It then focuses on specific museums as in depth case studies and uses methods of spatial analysis to look at the key design choices available to architects and curators and their effects on visitors behaviour Theoretically grounded methodologically original and richly illustrated this book will equip students researchers and professionals in the fields of architecture museum studies curating exhibition design and cultural studies with a guide for studying museums and a theoretical framework for their interpretation

The Routledge Companion to Art and Politics Randy Martin, 2015-02-11 The Routledge Companion to Art and Politics offers a thorough examination of the complex relationship between art and politics and the many forms and approaches the engagement between them can take The contributors a diverse assembly of artists activists scholars from around the world discuss and demonstrate ways of making art and politics legible and salient in the world As such the 32 chapters in this volume reflect on performing and visual arts music film and new media as well as covering social practice community based work conceptual interventionist and movement affiliated forms The Companion is divided into four distinct parts Conceptual Cartographies Institutional Materialities Modalities of Practice Making Publics Randy Martin has assembled a collection that ensures that readers will come away with a wider view of what can count as art and politics where they might find it and how it moves in the world The diversity of perspectives is at once challenging and fortifying to those who might dismiss political art on the one hand as not making sufficient difference and on the other to those embracing it but seeking a means to elaborate the significance that it can make in the world The Routledge Companion to Art and Politics brings together a range of issues and approaches and encourages critical and creative thinking about how art is produced perceived and received The Semiotics of Architecture in Video Games Gabriele Aroni,2022-09-08

Video games are among the most popular media on the planet and billions of people inhabit these virtual worlds on a daily basis This book investigates the architecture of video games the buildings roads and cities in which gamers play out their roles Examining both the aesthetic aspects and symbolic roles of video game architecture as they relate to gameplay Gabriele Aroni tackles a number of questions including How digital architecture relates to real architecture Where the inspiration for digital gaming architecture comes from and how it moves into new directions How the design of virtual architecture influences gameplay and storytelling Looking at how architecture in video games communicates and interacts with players this book combines semiotics and architecture theory to display how architecture is used in a variety of situations with different aims and results Using case studies from NaissanceE Assassin s Creed II and Final Fantasy XV The Semiotics of Architecture in Video Games discusses the techniques used to create successful virtual spaces and proposes a framework to analyse video game architecture ultimately explaining how to employ architectural solutions in video games in a systematic and effective way Theatre, Exhibition, and Curation Georgina Guy,2016-04-20 Examining the artistic intellectual and social life of performance this book interrogates Theatre and Performance Studies through the lens of display and modern visual art Moving beyond the exhibition of immaterial art and its documents as well as re enactment in gallery contexts Guy s book articulates an emerging field of arts practice distinct from but related to increasing curatorial provision for live performance Drawing on a recent proliferation of object centric events of display that interconnect with theatre the book approaches artworks in terms of their curation together and re theorizes the exhibition as a dynamic context in which established traditions of display and performance interact By examining the current traffic of ideas and aesthetics moving between theatricality and curatorial practice the study reveals how the reception of a specific form is often mediated via the ontological expectations of another It asks how contemporary visual arts and exhibition practices display performance and what it means to generalize the theatrical as the optic or directive of a curatorial concept Proposing a symbiotic relation between theatricality and display Guy presents cases from international arts institutions which are both displayed and performed including the Tate Modern and the Guggenheim and assesses their significance to the enduring relation between theatre and the visual arts The book progresses from the conventional alignment of theatricality and ephemerality within performance research and teases out a new temporality for performance with which contemporary exhibitions implicitly experiment thereby identifying supplementary modes of performance which other discourses exclude This important study joins the fields of Theatre and Performance Studies with exciting new directions in curation aesthetics sociology of the arts

Demarcation and Demystification J. Moufawad-Paul, 2019-11-29 Marx once declared that philosophers have only interpreted the world but the point is to change it Demarcation and Demystification examines the ways in which a radical practice of philosophy is possible under the aegis of Marx's 11th thesis arguing that philosophy's radicality is discovered by understanding that it can only ever interpret the world that social transformation lies beyond the sphere of its operations Demarcation and Demystification is a major statement on the gulf between what philosophers actually do and what they think they do Matthew R McLennan author of Philosophy and Vulnerability Unplanned Visitors Olivier

Vallerand, 2022-03-30 Sexuality and gender have long been influential in understanding the construction of domestic space its meanings often revealing a binary division of private and public female and male By reconstructing the foundation of queer critiques of space and by analyzing the representation of domesticity in contemporary art and architecture Unplanned Visitors shows the blurring of private and public that can occur in any domestic space and explores the potential of queer theory for understanding and designing the built environment Olivier Vallerand investigates how queer critiques building on pioneering feminist work question the relation between identity and architecture and highlight normative constructs underlying domestic spaces He draws out a genealogy of queer space in theoretical discourse in architecture studying projects by Mark Robbins Joel Sanders J Mayer H Elmgreen Dragset Andr's Jaque and MYCKET among others These works blur the traditional borders between architecture and art to emphasize the tensions between private and public and their impact on assumptions about domestic space and family structure The challenges in moving from experimental installations to built environments suggest how designers must acknowledge and respond to the social contexts that shape architecture rethinking how domestic spaces can be designed to allow everyone to better manage the expression of their self identification through their living environments Unplanned Visitors poses a challenge to traditional architectural theory and history but also suggests a renewed and more inclusive ethics whereby designers explicitly address social and political power structures The potential of a queer approach to architectural design history theory and education is precisely to enact a method that creates more inclusive buildings and safer neighbourhoods for everyone Appropriated Interiors Deborah Schneiderman, Anca I. Lasc, Karin Tehve, 2021-12-30 Appropriated Interiors uncovers the ways interiors participate explicitly and implicitly in embedded cultural and societal values and explores timely emergent scholarship in the fields of interior design history theory and practice What is appropriate and inappropriate now These are terms with particular interest to the study of the interior Featuring thirteen original curated essays Appropriated Interiors explores the tensions between normative interiors that express the dominant cultural values of a society and interiors that express new changing and even transgressive values With case studies from the late eighteenth century to the twenty first century these historians theorists and design practitioners investigate the implications of interior design as it relates to politics gender identity spatial

Speculation Marina Vishmidt, 2023-06-06 A wide ranging investigation of what speculation is and what is at stake for artistic curatorial critical and institutional practices in relating to their own speculative character Engaging with the question of speculation in ways that encompass the artistic the economic and the philosophical with excursions into the literary and the scientific this collection approaches the theme as a powerful logic of contemporary life whose key instantiations are art and finance Both are premised on the power of contingency temporality and experimentation in the creation and capitalization of possible worlds Artistic autonomy and the self legislation of the space of art have often been seen as the freedom to speculate wildly on material and social possibilities In this context the artist is seen as a speculative subject and a paragon of creativity the diametrical opposite of the bean counter obsessed with balance sheets and value added However once social reality becomes speculative and opaque in its own right risky algorithmic and overhauled by networked markets what becomes of the distinction between not just art and finance but art and life This
