Taking Reality By Surprise Writing For Pleasure And Publication:

Taking reality by surprise Susan Sellers, 1991 Taking Reality by Surprise Susan Sellers, 1991 Over fifty editors literary agents and writing tutors as well as novelists journalists and poets offer a complete guide to writing and getting published for accomplished and aspiring writers alike Professional Experience and the Investigative Imagination Alyson Buck, Paula Sobiechowska, Richard Winter, 2013-03-07 This book explains and demonstrates how creative writing can be used successfully in the context of professional education where traditionally a more distanced approach to reporting on professional experience has been favoured It is based on many practical examples drawn from several years experience of running courses for social workers nurses teachers managers and higher education staff in which participants explore their professional practice through imaginative forms of writing The participants experience of the work is presented through a discussion of interviews and evaluative documents The book includes a set of distance learning materials for those wishing to undertake such work for themselves or to establish similar courses as well as a full analysis of the link between professional reflection and the artistic imagination The book makes available a new and more broadly based approach to the process of professional reflection and the concept of the patchwork text has general relevance for debates about increasing access to higher education qualifications Feminist Research in Theory and Practice Gayle Letherby, 2003-02-16 an extremely welcome addition to the field of feminist research British Journal of Educational Studies This is a clear and accessible exploration of feminist method methodology and epistemology After situating herself and her work Gayle Letherby charts the debates concerned with the epistemological political and practical issues involved in doing feminist research and places the debates within a wider consideration of the status of knowledge The main focus of the book is then the particular and practical issues for feminist researchers It examines how the process of research affects the results of that research and explores the relation between politics and practice in terms of research and knowledge production Throughout the book there is a practical emphasis on specific examples of feminist research in action and as well as summarizing current theoretical debates Gayle Letherby adds to them Feminist Research in Theory and Practice is designed and written as a textbook for students at advanced undergraduate and postgraduate level but will be a valuable resource for any researcher or individual interested in women s studies feminism and in researching in the social sciences Read my Mind Fred Sedgwick, 2002-11-01 In this Sedgwick s latest book he aims to help all those involved with children and their learning through poem writing improve their practice He argues that through poetry children can learn about the whole curriculum including history and science The book begins with an introduction outlining the importance of poetry and defining it It discusses poetry in terms of children s learning and the imagination Case studies are used to show how children learn about themselves first their bodies and second their thoughts and emotions through the writing of poetry Using many examples of childrens work he considers how children learn about their environment and the relationship between themselves and their environment Finally he discusses his techniques for getting children to write and provides recommendations for further reading Fred Sedgwick is a freelance lecturer and writer specialising in children s writing art and personal social and moral education and has been described as the nearest thing I ve seen to the Pied Piper Previously a headteacher in primary schools for 16 years he has published books of poetry for both children and adults

The Art of Writing Fiction Andrew Cowan,2013-11-19 The Art of Writing Fiction guides the reader through the processes of creative writing from journal keeping to editing offering techniques for stimulating creativity and making language vivid Readers will master key aspects of fiction such as structure character voice and setting Andrew Cowan provides an insightful introduction that brings his own well crafted prose style to bear on the processes and pleasures of writing fiction offering practical and personal advice culled from his own experience and that of other published writers He lays open to the reader his own notes his writing and the experiences from his own life that he has drawn on in his fiction allowing the reader to develop their own writing project alongside the author as they go through the book

English as a Creative Art Linden Peach,Angela Burton,2018-10-24 English as a Creative Art is different from previous works on either creative writing or contemporary literary criticism It is the first book to bring the two together demonstrating how concepts drawn from literary theory can be used to enable students to develop critical insights into their own writing Conversely it also aims to help students understand contemporary critical concepts and become more incisive thinkers through creative work

Talking About Literacy Jane Mace,2003-08-29 Talking about Literacy re examines dominant notions of what literacy is and challenges the problem solution reflex to the issue the problem is illiteracy the solution is more literacy Literacy has enormous emotional and political associations and the job of literacy educator often concerns changing attitudes and challenging prejudices whether in the form of publicity strategies counselling new students or in curriculum design In short adult literacy education means not only teaching courses like fresh start basic skills study skills communication skills language support and return to study but also designing strategies to encourage people to see that these courses may meet their own interests and educating them and others to rethink their own negative attitudes to illiteracy The book looks in detail in at five principles put forward by Jane Mace as central to the education of people who often can read but wish they could read better who technically can write but have a desire to do so with more expression and coherence These principles focus on five themes context inquiry authorship equality and community Since it is all too easy for literacy education involving adults who do not have formal qualifications to stop short of teaching techniques for correct writing these principles mean taking seriously a view that adult students are writers as well as readers that they have an entitlement to be read as well as to read others

Teaching Literacy Fred Sedgwick,2002-02-01 The teaching of literacy is a high priority for teachers and for governments yet some of the approaches commonly used are very limiting joyless and ultimately ineffective In contrast Fred Sedgwick shows how literacy can be combined with and promoted through a love of reading and children s ability to think and write creatively Using a wide variety of rich resources the author shows how to put creative approaches into practice and illustrates through children's work just how rewarding those results can be Active Reading Ben Knights, Chris Thurgar-Dawson, 2008-06-01 The subject of this book is the crossover between critical study and creative writing Active reading is a structured process of writing activities using imitation variation and experimentation Through practical composition techniques such as transformational writing re writing or translation students can use writing activities to develop their critical imagination This book bridges the gap between theories of learning and Literary studies in Higher Education Setting the argument in an historical and theoretical context it outlines the importance of writing as a medium of learning and argues for its usefulness in aiding English students understanding of theoretical as well as literary and cultural texts The authors provide a reflective account of teaching and assessment methods using writing activities and critical thinking techniques and the forms of learning they promote In the last section they explore the connections with other forms of writing practice in related disciplines and argue for the role of transformational writing in promoting independent learning Appendices provide examples of the range of activities that can be used and an indicative list of literary examples How to Write Poetry Fred Sedgwick, 2005-06-01 Plenty of people want to write poetry yet while it is not necessarily difficult to write poetry badly it is harder to write it well In this guide Fred Sedgwick explains with numerous examples from successful poets how the creative process works from the initial impulse to write all the way through to the crafted and expressive poetry at the end British Book News , 1991

EBOOK: Teaching Shakespeare to Develop Children's Writing: A Practical Guide: 9-12 years Fred Sedgwick, 2014-10-16 Shakespeare's words belong to all of us This book offers 87 lessons full of practical advice on how to teach Shakespeare to young children with the knowledge that the best way to learn about the playwright is to write in the grip of his words In this exciting and accessible book Fred Sedgwick who has been teaching Shakespeare to KS2 children for many years offers techniques for introducing some of the plays starting with A Midsummer Night's Dream to children between the ages of nine and twelve These ideas will help them to write act and draw in the grip of the greatest of writers Above all they will help children enjoy Shakespeare's words and extend the power of their own words Any teacher concerned with literacy however nervous she or he may be about approaching Shakespeare will find this book practical and inspiring British Book News British Council, 1991 Includes no 53a British wartime books for young people American Bookseller , 1991 South African Writers' World , 1994-05 Inventing the Fishes Sue Stewart, 1993 A collection of poems that aims to bridge the real the surreal and the mythic as they engage with both personal life and the natural world the commonplace and the extraordinary Midwifery Sara Wickham, 2005 Presenting a succinct review of key issues within midwifery this text is a practical reference resource that will be of use to midwives operating at all levels The A-Z of Non-sexist Language Margaret Doyle, 1995 Bringing today's vocabulary completely up to date here is definitive guide to non sexist language This straightforward and easy to use handbook offers a complete listing of sexist words and their non sexist alternatives vital clarification of common usage words outlining fully why some words are sexist and some are not accessible A Z format and full cross referencing Unique and comprehensive The A Z of Non Sexist Language is an essential reference for writers speakers editors teachers and all who care about the words they use Gendering Poetry Vicki Bertram, 2005 Vicki Bertram shows that gender is a crucial ingredient in the writing reading and interpretation of poetry Beginning with an overview and critique of the contemporary debate on poetry and gender she then moves on to discuss the work of selected lyric poets from the 1950s onwards
