Peter Squires's Gun Culture or Gun Control the issues pertaining to gun violence and gun control have developed dramatically With Gun Crime in Global Contexts Peter Squires offers a cutting edge account of contemporary developments in the politics of gun crime and the social and theoretical issues that surround the problem This book contains an innovative political analysis of neo liberal globalization and weapon proliferation an overview of recent gun control debates and gang strategies in the UK an updated analysis of US gun politics self defence race and the culture war a critical analysis of US school and rampage shootings how they have impacted the gun debate and how different societies have responded to mass shootings an examination of the UN s development of an Arms Trade Treaty 2001 13 a discussion of weapon trafficking discussions about youth gangs around the world including those in Brazil Kenya West Africa Mexico and South Africa With its interdisciplinary perspective and global reach this book will be important reading for academics and students interested in youth and gang crime violent crime and comparative criminal justice as well as peace and security studies and international relations

Ulrich's International Periodicals Directory Carolyn Farquhar Ulrich,2001 Restorative Justice and Family Violence Heather Strang,John Braithwaite,2002-07-08 This 2002 book addresses one of the most controversial topics in restorative justice its potential for dealing with conflicts within families Most restorative justice programs specifically exclude family violence as an appropriate offence to be dealt with this way This book focuses on the issues in family violence that may warrant special caution about restorative justice in particular feminist and indigenous concerns At the same time it looks for ways of designing a place for restorative interventions that respond to these concerns Further it asks whether there are ways that restorative processes can contribute to reducing and preventing family violence to healing its survivors and to confronting the wellsprings of this violence The book discusses the shortcomings of the present criminal justice response to family violence It suggests that these shortcomings require us to explore other ways of addressing this apparently intractable problem

Juvenile Justice Reform and Restorative Justice Gordon Bazemore,Mara Schiff,2013-06-17 This book based on a large scale research project funded by the National Institute of Justice and the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation provides an overview of the restorative justice conferencing programs currently in operation in the United States paying particular attention to the qualitative dimensions of this based on interviews focus groups and ethnographic observation It provides an unrivalled view of restorative justice conferencing in practice and what the people involved felt and thought about it The book looks at four structural variations in the face to face form of restorative decision making family group conferences victim offender mediation dialogue neighborhood accountability boards peacemaking circles The authors address two issues that have received limited research emphasis in restorative justice the lack of clear and consistent standards and the absence of testable theories of intervention that reflect what has become a rather diverse practice In response the authors conclude with a proposed structure for principle based evaluation designed to test emerging theories of restorative decision making

The Prisoners' World William S. Tregea,Marjorie S. Larmour,2009-03-16 Drawing on twenty five years of teaching prison college and volunteer classes in eleven Michigan and California prisons The Prisoners World strives to make the prisoners voice come alive for regular college students The book starts off by tracing shifts in social definitions of criminality and lays out the premises of the U S incarceration binge in the 1986 War on Drugs laws and subsequent mandatory sentencing and policing Later chapters discuss issues such as leaving home cell life correctional officers and treatment the homosexual prisoner and drugs Furthermore the book discusses the teachers experiences via author narrative essays that draw the reader into prisoner student and prisoner teacher interaction and what it is like inside prison college classes where both young and older black prisoner students describe growing up in the inner cities The book also draws upon over sixty prisoner essays that provide insight on prisoner life and self concept with insights on pathways to prison drug selling the inner city and guns There is also a strong focus on the inside experiences of entering prison and orientation daily work routine correctional officers and surreptitious activities like cell cooking and contraband These essays are capped by prisoner critiques of prison life from those still in the system The Prisoners World serves as a successful supplemental book whose material has proven useful in undergraduate criminal justice classes As college students themselves on campus students in these classes will identify with the prisoner student voices who share their experiences but in a radically different environment
