

Meadows have surprises,
You can find them if you look;
Walk softly through the velvet grass,
And listen by the brook.

You may see a butterfly
Rest upon a buttercup
And unfold its drinking straws
To sip the nectar up.

You may scare a rabbit
Who is sitting very still;
Though at first you may not see him,
When he hops you will.

A dandelion whose fuzzy head
Was golden days ago
Has turned to airy parachutes
That flutter when you blow.

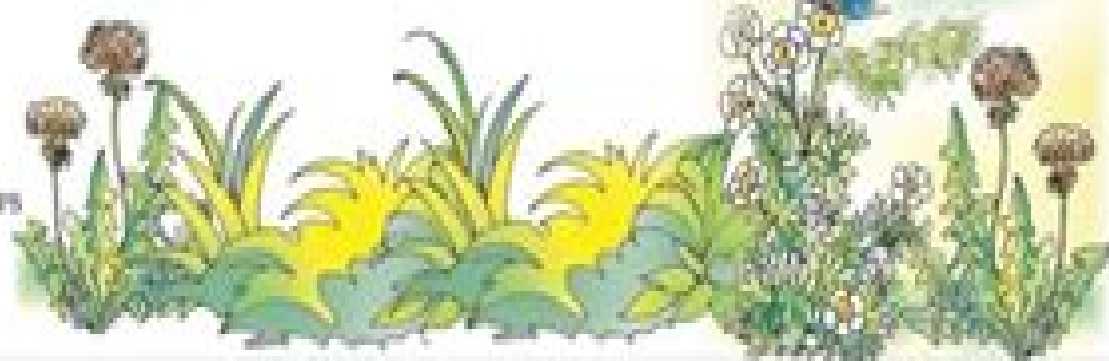

Explore the meadow houses,
The burrows in the ground,
A nest beneath tall grasses,
The ant's amazing mound.

Oh! Meadows have surprises
And many things to tell;
You may discover these yourself,
If you look and listen well.

Crisis of Empire Phil Booth, 2017-10-26. This book focuses on the attempts of three seventh-century Palestinian intellectuals: John Moschos, Sophronius of Jerusalem and Maximus the Confessor, to determine the Church's power and place during a period of profound crisis as the eastern Roman Empire suffered serious reversals in the face of Persian and then Islamic expansion. Through their stories, Booth documents nothing less than a profound change in the very nature of the self-perception of a religious society. Although focused on the first half of the seventh century, this book throws bright light both behind itself on the nature of the role of the holy man in late antiquity and in front of itself on the nature of the Byzantine Orthodoxy that would emerge in the middle ages and which is still central to the churches of Greece and Eastern Europe.
