Janice C. Crosby,2000-01-01 This book examines the spiritual dimensions found in the literature of the fantastic science fiction fantasy and magical realism by linking such novels to actual currents within the feminist spirituality movement Fusing popular culture studies women's studies and close textual analysis the author moves beyond earlier studies that fail to address the genre's use of goddess worship psychic phenomena and reverence for the earth She reveals how such attributes betoken a spiritual awakening with profound implications for contemporary feminism Special emphasis is given to both the struggle to provide an alternative to men centered experience and to the need to articulate ways in which feminists can achieve personal and social power The authors studied represent a variety of American voices and include both firmly established and newer writers such as Marion Zimmer Bradley Kim Chernin Alice Walker Mercedes Lackey Patricia Kennealy Gael Baudino Octavia Butler Lynn Abbey Joan Vinge Toni Morrison Gloria Naylor Ntozake Shange and Starhawk Cultural Theory in the Films of Alfred Hitchcock Gary McCarron,2023-07-11 This book is neither biography nor a conventional film critique Rather the text explores aspects of Hitchcock's work in relation to theories drawn from the social sciences and philosophy The various chapters focus not on specific films but on broader ideas central to Hitchcock's work There is for instance a chapter on his idea of the MacGuffin in which I use Ernesto Laclau's theories of equivalent substitution to explain how the MacGuffin functions in Hitchcock's works There is also a chapter on his notion of pure cinema which moves from the idea of purity as an anthropological concept to consider purity in relation to current debates regarding so called hybrid media and Hitchcock's relevance to these issues in respect of his dissatisfaction with the advent of sound to the cinema world

Broadly speaking the book uses Hitchcock's films to illustrate ideas in the social sciences and philosophy and uses those same ideas to illustrate aspects of Hitchcock's films Constructing American Lives Scott E. Casper, 2018-07-25 Nineteenth century American authors critics and readers believed that biography had the power to shape individuals characters and to help define the nation's identity In an age predating radio and television biography was not simply a genre of writing says Scott Casper it was the medium that allowed people to learn about public figures and peer into the lives of strangers In this pioneering study Casper examines how Americans wrote published and read biographies and how their conceptions of the genre changed over the course of a century Campaign biographies memoirs of pious women patriotic narratives of eminent statesmen mug books that collected the lives of ordinary midwestern farmers all were labeled biography however disparate their contents and the contexts of their creation publication and dissemination Analyzing debates over how these diverse biographies should be written and read Casper reveals larger disputes over the meaning of character the definition of American history and the place of American literary practices in a transatlantic world of letters As much a personal experience as a literary genre biography helped Americans imagine their own lives as well as the ones about which they wrote and read Freedom and Truth Howard Nicholson Brown, 1916 Oriental Tales: The book of the thousand nights and one night, 1901 Tennessee Williams, Updated Edition Harold Bloom, 2009 Presents a collection of critical essays on Williams and his works arranged in chronological order of publication Poetry and Truth from My Own Life Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, 1913 The Dartons Lawrence Darton, 2004 A list of children's books issued by two publishing houses
