Index to Fairy Tales, Myths, and Legends Mary Huse Eastman, 1926      Index to Fairy Tales, Myths, and Legends
Mary Huse Eastman, 1937 For contents see Author Catalog      Filipino Popular Tales Various, 2019-11-19 Filipino Popular Tales is a rich anthology that intricately weaves together the cultural tapestry of the Philippines through its selection of folklore and traditional narratives. The tales encapsulate the vibrant oral traditions and indigenous beliefs, employing a narrative style that ranges from rich lyrical prose to straightforward storytelling. This collection serves as both a mirror reflecting the Filipino psyche and a crucial record of its cultural heritage, offering insights into societal norms, moral values, and ancestral wisdom prevalent during the times these tales were told. Its literary context places it within the broader canon of Southeast Asian folklore, allowing for comparative studies with other cultures, mythologies, and fables. The compilation stems from various authors and storytellers drawing from multiple regions and dialects of the Philippines, which illustrates the nation's diverse cultural landscape. This anthology aims to preserve these popular tales amidst the influence of globalization, thereby allowing contemporary readers to connect with their roots. The editors' commitment to ensuring authenticity and diversity is evident in the careful selection and presentation of stories that resonate across generations. Readers interested in folklore, anthropology, and cultural studies will find Filipino Popular Tales both enlightening and entertaining. It serves as a gateway to understanding not only the rich traditions of the Philippines but also the universal themes embedded in human experience. This collection is invaluable for anyone seeking to broaden their literary horizons and appreciate the nuances of Filipino culture.

The Eve/Hagar Paradigm in the Fiction of Quince Duncan Dellita Martin-Ogunsola, 2004 In this first book-length study in English devoted to Duncan's work, Martin-Ogunsola explores the issues of race, class, and gender in five of Duncan's major works published during the 1970s. Focusing primarily on the roles of women, Martin-Ogunsola uses the figures of Eve and the Egyptian slave Hagar to provide, through metaphor, an in-depth analysis of the female characters portrayed in Duncan's prose. Specifically, the Eve/Hagar paradigm is employed to examine how the essential characteristics of femininity play out in the context of ethnicity and caste. The book begins with Dawn Song (1970), the story of Antillean immigrants struggling with migration, oppression, and resistance while adapting to a new environment, and continues through Dead End Street (1979), a novel exploring the ramifications of the myths perpetuated through history that defines Costa Rica in terms of Euro-Hispanic culture. Martin-Ogunsola illustrates Duncan's use of a female presence that challenges the traditional treatment of women in literature. Spanning the period between the initial settlement of the Atlantic region of Costa Rica during the early years of the twentieth century to the 1948 Costa Rican Civil War, Martin-Ogunsola's book invites the reader to view the world through the eyes of Duncan's female characters. The Eve/Hagar Paradigm in the Fiction of Quince Duncan examines some of the most compelling issues of contemporary Latin American literature and illustrates how a prominent Costa Rican writer deconstructs the stereotype of woman as wife/lover.

slave In the process Duncan finds his own voice Exposing aspects of Costa Rican society that have historically been kept in the shadows this volume makes a significant contribution to our knowledge of the Latin American literary canon BOOK
