to a born again Christian through God's unwavering love forgiveness and grace He was constantly pulling her to Him throughout life's scenarios At the time she may have shaken it off as a coincidence but she soon realized it was God showing her how she can be blessed even through the most raging storms in life He was preparing her for the life He laid out for her and her family to raise a child with disabilities You will hear her crying out to God in fear and anger as she tries to understand His reasoning for allowing her precious son to have these disabilities which at times seemed like the enemy himself was in total control You will read about her husband and daughter whom God knew she needed and who could work together to give Austin the best life possible even with the sometimes daily seizures and at times pure rage See how throughout her life she became a believer and even with Kerry and Kaylynn's love and support she had to find the strength elsewhere to get up each and every day to be the best mom she could be for Austin Read how still to this day she struggles with negative emotions and guilt and needs to be reminded often that God is in control and He will never forsake her even when she feels she is alone Her story is the meaning of the title of her book as she had to completely and totally learn to rely on God and allow Him to lead her and her family's journey of living with disabilities which she calls the Austin dance
