The Freudian Orient Frank F. Scherer, 2018-05-08 This study consists of a twofold interrelated enquiry the Orientalism of psychoanalysis and the psychoanalysis of Orientalism bringing into conversation Sigmund Freud and Edward Said and thereby the founding texts of psychoanalysis and postcolonial studies The immediate object of this exploration is the Freudian Orient and we thus begin by tracing the strong Orientalist presence in Freud's writings with examples from his early as well as later correspondence his diaries and his psychological works Following these examples of manifest Orientalism we will pursue more latent meanings by engaging two of Freud's favorite metaphors archaeology and travel Whereas the former soon uncovers a veritable porta Orientis conducting to an external Orient the latter reveals an internalised Orient traversed by Jewishness anti-Semitism and the Bible Unveiling the figure of Moses shows how Freud's strategy to resist anti-Semitic Orientalism by way of universalist reversal is only partially successful as he cannot extricate himself from the historical assumptions of that discourse

The Thousand and One Nights: Sources and Transformations in Literature, Art, and Science, 2020-04-28 The Thousand and One Nights does not fall into a scholarly canon or into the category of popular literature It takes its place within a middle literature that circulated widely in medieval times The Nights gradually entered world literature through the great novels of the day and through music cinema and other art forms Material inspired by the Nights has continued to emerge from many different countries periods disciplines and languages and the scope of the Nights has continued to widen making the collection a universal work from every point of view The essays in this volume scrutinize the expanse of sources for this monumental work of Arabic literature and follow the trajectory of the Nights texts the creative scholarly commentaries artistic encounters and relations to science Contributors Ibrahim Akel Rasoul Aliakbari Daniel Behar Aboubakr Chra bi Anne E Duggan William Granara Rafika Hammoudi Dominique Jullien Abdelfattah Kilito Magdalena Kubarek Michael James Lundell Ulrich Marzolph Adam Mestyan Ey p zveren Marina Paino Daniela Potenza Arafat Abdur Razzaque Ahmed Saidy Johannes Thomann and Ilaria Vitali The Naked Consumer Today Jan Callebaut, Hendrik Hendrickx, Madeleine Janssens, 2002 Modern market research has made significant progress in pushing the envelope of analytical models of consumer behavior but common and highly visible marketing failures indicate that something is missing in this approach Long term success in marketing requires an actionable understanding of consumer motivations This book details Censydiam s The Center for Systematic Diagnostics in Marketing insights into these matters ranging from the importance of the unconscious in consumer decision making to the effective use of a universally applicable psychological model that can yield country specific results It is true that we live in a very quantitative age Academics are more inclined to bemoan the lack of numerical literacy among our citizens than to advocate a better understanding of human nature In terms of market research this means that many studies leap to quantification too quickly People s motivations are not so easily put into an analytical black box Quantification is ultimately necessary but it is critical to understand the correct questions to ask before we attempt to become precise about consumers buying dynamics

Nineteenth-Century Photographs and Architecture Micheline Nilsen, 2017-07-05 Eschewing the limiting idea that nineteenth century architecture photography merely reflects functionality the objective of this collection is to reflect the aesthetic intellectual and cultural concerns of the time The essays hold appeal for social and cultural historians as well as those with an interest in the fields of art history urban geography history of travel and tourism Nineteenth century photographers captured what could be seen and what they wanted to be seen Their images informed of exploration progress heritage and destruction Architecture was a staple subject for the first generation of photographers as it patiently tolerated the long exposures of the early processes During its formative decades photography responded to evolutionary cultural forces of market and artistic production Photographs of architecture reflected a specific political or social context modulated through individual points of view For this reason the examination of each photographic image as a primary visual document and an aesthetic object rather than a technical milestone on a chronological trajectory affords a richer multi faceted approach to the extensive and complex corpus of photographs taken by photographers all over the world This project acknowledges the importance of technique in the early decades of photography but focuses on the thematic content of the material It places the photography of architecture in an international context under the contemporary critical lens sharpened by theoretical and cultural examinations of the topic Impasse of the Angels Stefania Pandolfo, 1997 In Impasse of the Angels Stefania Pandolfo takes the critical engagement of anthropology to its limit by presenting the relationship between observer and observed as one of interacting equals and mutually constituting subjects Narrating debating and imagining real characters take center stage and through their act of speech invent a people rather than stand for it Exploring what it means to be a subject in the historical and poetic imagination of a Moroccan society Impasse of the Angels listens to dissonant and often idiosyncratic voices elaborate the fractures wounds and contradictions of the Maghribi postcolonial present Passionate and lyric ironic and tragic it is a transformative narrative experiment traveling the boundary of ethnography and fiction

The Qur'an and the Aesthetics of Premodern Arabic Prose Sarah R. bin Tyeer, 2016-09-10 This book approaches the Qur'an as a primary source for delineating the definition of ugliness and by extension beauty and in turn establishing meaningful tools and terms for literary criticism within the discipline of classical Arabic literature adab Focusing on the aesthetic dimension of the Qur'an this methodology opens up new horizons for reading adab by reading the tradition from within the tradition and thereby examining issues of decontextualisation and the untranslatable This approach in turn invites Comparatists as well as Arabists to consider other means and perspectives for approaching adab besides the Bakhtinian carnival Applying this critical strategy to literary works as diverse as One Thousand and One Nights and The Epistle of Forgiveness Sarah R bin Tyeer aims to prove two major points how Bakhtin's aesthetics is anachronistic and therefore theoretically inappropriate when applied to certain literary works and how ultimately this literary methodology is sometimes used as a proxy for ungrounded and sometimes unfair arguments by other scholars Foreword by Angelika Neuwirth Professor of Quranic studies Freie University Berlin Germany

On Freud's Femininity Graciela Abelin-Sas Rose, Leticia Glocer Fiorini, 2018-03-29 In this book a group of contemporary psychoanalytic authors dedicated to studies on women and the feminine have been assembled with the objective of displaying points of concordance and discordance in relation to Freudian proposals Discourse on women has changed greatly since Freud's time It coincides with deep changes experienced by women and the feminine position at least in most of the Western world It is common knowledge that contraceptives assisted fertilization advances in women's rights growingly evident sublimational capacities and demonstrations of professional success have definitely changed ideas regarding an eternal and immutable feminine nature The authors are interested in illuminating ways in which these changes have or have not influenced psychoanalytic debate in relation to the feminine This implies renewing the question of what is authentically feminine and whether there is any essential truth concerning the feminine

Rumpelstiltskin's Secret Harry Rand, 2019-12-09 Everyone knows Rumpelstiltskin's story or thinks they do But this innocent seeming tale hides generations of women's shrewd accounts of their relationships with men And the verdict is not flattering The fairytale may count among the world's oldest dirty jokes The theme of the tale an observation repeated and varied throughout mocks male inadequacy in many forms beginning with sexual failure The punchline misplaced over time its wickedly funny insights about adult life passed for childish nonsense The story hides in plain sight criticism of workplace sexual harassment centuries before society took notice of the indignity Rumpelstiltskin tells a feminist tale with lessons for men and women about what women said to each other when they thought their private conversation and complaints passed unnoticed In the story's different versions the Brothers Grimm who recorded the tale missed women's wry observations

The Transgender Studies Reader Susan Stryker, Stephen Whittle, 2013-10-18 Transgender studies is the latest area of academic inquiry to grow out of the exciting nexus of queer theory feminist studies and the history of sexuality Because transpeople challenge our most fundamental assumptions about the relationship between bodies desire and identity the field is both fascinating and contentious The Transgender Studies Reader puts between two covers fifty influential texts with new introductions by the editors that taken together document the evolution of transgender studies in the English speaking world By bringing together the voices and experience of transgender individuals doctors psychologists and academically based theorists this volume will be a foundational text for the transgender community transgender studies and related queer theory

The Ultimate Book Club 180 Books You Should Read Vol 1 is an enthralling anthology that expertly weaves together the majestic threads of global literary tapestry offering readers a rich tableau of narrative artistry and intellectual exploration This carefully curated volume brings together timeless classics that span genres and epochs from the enchanting realms of Jules Verne's futuristic fantasies to the poignant social critiques of Charles Dickens It is a celebration of diverse narratives from the haunting depths of Edgar Allan Poe's tales to the whimsical worlds of Lewis Carroll capturing the essence of human experience in its multifaceted forms The anthology showcases an astonishing array of voices each contributing uniquely to this literary cornucopia The anthology features giants like Shakespeare whose enduring dramas continue to reflect the human condition and Plato whose philosophical dialogues still provoke thought centuries later Amidst this stellar collection are also the passionate prose of the Brontës and the reflective musings of Thoreau weaving their distinct perspectives into a cohesive exploration of the human soul Together these luminaries offer profound insights into cultural historical and intellectual movements that have shaped literary canon Recommended for scholars enthusiasts and casual readers alike The Ultimate Book Club provides an unparalleled journey through the literary cosmos Its breadth of perspectives from the philosophical musings of Marcus Aurelius to the imaginative adventures of Thomas Hardy promises an enlightening experience This anthology not only broadens the understanding of world literature but also fosters a dialogue between readers and the narratives that have shaped civilizations making it a must have compendium for those eager to traverse the timeless landscapes of literary grandeur White Woman Speaks with Forked Tongue Nicole Ward Jouve, 2022-09-12 Originally published in 1991 The style of this startlingly original appraisal of a broad range of women s writing suggests a new direction for feminist criticism combining as it does challenging intellectual debate and fresh textual analysis with fictional example and autobiographical detail to make a wholly new invention in the field In addressing the need for the critic to say I and to own judgments and statements instead of attributing these to an apparently impersonal third person the author here points up some of the shortcomings of much prevailing feminist analysis challenging the very foundations of the Anglo American feminist idea Purposely avoiding the totalising effect of much academic criticism the writer critic finds a new format and a new methodology for her insights and observations on a range of writers from Doris Lessing to H l ne Cixious Her unique analysis of the links between criticism and autobiography enable her to highlight the absurdity of attempting to write in the light of recent critical and scientific knowledge as if the self were a stable unified construct introducing instead a new creative understanding of the methods and modes of women s writing This sparkling collection presents an exciting and original new voice in literary criticism It tackles issues fundamental to literary theory feminist criticism psychoanalysis and cultural studies offering new critical insights and providing a significant and wholly original feminist contribution to these key fields

The Mother in Psychoanalysis and Beyond Rosalind Mayo, Christina Moutsou, 2016-10-04 The question of what it means to be a mother is a very contentious topic in psychoanalysis and in wider society The Mother in Psychoanalysis and Beyond explores our relationship to the maternal through psychoanalysis philosophy art and political and gender studies Over two years a group of psychotherapists and members of the public met at the Philadelphia Association for a series of seminars on the Maternal In the discussions that followed a chasm opened up slowly and painfully between the idealised longings and fantasies we all share and the realities of maternal experiences here were met the great silences of love loss longing memories desire hatred and ambivalence This book is the result of this bringing together in conversation and reflections of what so often seems unsayable about the Mother It examines how issues of personal and gender identity are shaped by the ideals of separation from the mother the fears and anxiety of merging with the mother and how this has often led in psychoanalysis and society to holding mothers responsible for a variety of personal and social ills and problems in which maternal vulnerability is denied and silenced There are two main themes running throughout the book Matricide and Maternal Subjectivity On the theme of matricide several contributors discuss the ways in which the discourse and narratives of the Mother have been silenced on a sociocultural level and within psychoanalysis and philosophy in favour of discourses that promote independence autonomy power and the avoidance and denial of our fundamental helplessness and vulnerability On the theme of maternal subjectivity several chapters look at the actual experience of mothering and or our relationship to our mother to highlight the ways in which the maternal is intimately connected with human subjectivity The Mother in Psychoanalysis and Beyond provides new and provocative thinking about the maternal and its place in various contemporary discourses It will appeal to psychoanalysts psychotherapists and psychologists of different schools scholars and advanced students of art gender studies politics and philosophy as well as anyone interested in maternity studies and the relationship between the maternal and human subjectivity

Transgressive Truths and Flattering Lies Markus Schmitz, 2020-04-02 This book explores the formative correlations and inventive transmissions of Anglophone Arab representations ranging from early 20th century Mahjar writings to contemporary transnational Palestinian resistance art Tracing multiple beginnings and seminal intertexts the comparative study of dissonant truth making presents critical readings in which the notion of cross cultural translation gets displaced and strategic unreliability representational opacity or matters of act advance to essential qualities of the discussed works aesthetic devices and ethical concerns Questioning conventional interpretive approaches Markus Schmitz shows what Anglophone Arab studies are and what they can become from a radically decentered relational point of view Among the writers and artists discussed are such diverse figures as Rabi Alameddine William Blatty Kahlil Gibran Ihab Hassan Jabra Ibrahim Jabra Emily Jacir Walid Raad Ameen Rihani Edward Said Larissa Sansour and Raja Shehadeh

Modernist Short Fiction and Things Aimée Gasston, 2021-08-10 This book reappraises the philosophical value of short fiction by Virginia Woolf Katherine Mansfield and Elizabeth Bowen examining the stories through the lens of specific everyday objects Looking at Woolf and armchairs Mansfield and snack food and Bowen and fashion accessories it probes the aesthetic resonance between these stories form and contents and also considers the modes of thinking they might promote Conceiving of their short fiction as intrinsically radical and experimental even within a wider context of modernist innovation this book shows how these important women writers brought quotidian objects to riotous life in such a way that tasked readers with reevaluating their everyday existence Overall Modernist Short Fiction and Things argues that short fiction epitomises modernist aesthetics functioning as a resonant source for investigation and complementing and expanding our understanding of modernist epistemology

Re-reading the Short Story Clare Hanson, 1989-06-18 This collection of essays maintaining links with theory and practice applies a critical approach to the short story form Some are theoretical in orientation covering such issues as gender and marginality while others offer readings of works by writers such as Alice Munro and John McGahern

I Am a Part of Infinity Kieran Fox, 2025-04-01 A beautifully written David Fideler spiritual biography of Albert Einstein that reveals for the first time the scientific and religious origins of his personal philosophy a must read for anyone who wants to understand the mind of the great physicist Jo Marchant Albert Einstein remains renowned around the world for revolutionizing our understanding of the cosmos but very few realize that the celebrated scientist had a deep spiritual side Einstein believed that one wondrous force was woven through all things everywhere and this sense of the pervasive sacred influenced every aspect of his existence from his marvelous science to his passionate pacifism I Am a Part of Infinity offers the first in depth exploration of Einstein's spirituality showing how he drew on a dazzling diversity of thinkers from Pythagoras to Plato Schopenhauer to Spinoza the Upanishads to Mahatma Gandhi to create a novel system where mysticism met mathematics reality was revered and the human mind was honored as a mirror of the infinite This wasn't just a new way of seeing the world Einstein asked us to commune with the cosmos to treat every living creature with compassion to channel the power that permeated all things and put it to use for pure purposes Drawing on little known conversations recently published letters and new archival research I Am a Part of Infinity reveals what Einstein really believed and why his perspective still matters today
