Tales of the Caribbean Evan Jones,1984 The Caribbean Story Finder Sharon Barcan Elswit,2017-09-11 The Caribbean islands have a vibrant oral folklore In Jamaica the clever spider Anansi who outsmarts stronger animals is a symbol of triumph by the weak over the powerful The fables of the foolish Juan Bobo who tries to bring milk home in a burlap bag illustrate facets of traditional Puerto Rican life Conflict over status identity and power is a recurring theme in a story from Trinidad a young bull raised by his mother in secret challenges his tyrannical father who has killed all the other males in the herd One in a series of folklore reference guides by the author this volume shares summaries of 438 tales some in danger of disappearing retold in English and Creole from West African European and slave indigenous cultures in 24 countries and territories Tales are grouped in themed sections with a detailed subject index and extensive links to online sources A Project Approach to Language Learning Katherine Luongo-Orlando,2001 This book focuses on building knowledge and skills through extensive projects that explore various literary genres and themes Primary School Geography (1994) Bill Marsden,Jo Hughes,2019-07-24 Published in 1994 this book is the result of the collaborative work undertaken at the Liverpool based Geography INSET Primary Project GIPP over three years It presents a series of chapters for primary teachers seeking to implement the Statutory Orders for Geography in the National Curriculum Steering a middle course between the sophistications of a theoretical methodological text and the over simplifications of a tips for teachers approach the authors highlight the positive opportunities offered by the National Curriculum At the same time they are critical of many aspects of the Statutory Orders without losing sight of their objective to help teachers to improve the quality of primary geography teaching The book is especially useful for INSET work for teachers who have already grappled with National Curriculum Geography and who will be adjusting to the post Dearing rearrangements Tales of Caribbean Witches Jones, Evan,1991 Reading 360 Ginn Reading Programme,1984 Connecting Cultures Rebecca L. Thomas,1996-01-30 A comprehensive guide to multicultural literature for children this valuable resource features more than 1 600 titles including fiction folktales poetry and song books that focus on diverse cultural groups The selected titles published between the 1970s and 1990s are suitable for use with preschoolers through sixth graders and are likely to be found on the shelves of school and public libraries Topics are timely with an emphasis on books that reflect the needs and interests of today s children Each detailed entry includes bibliographic information Use level is also included as are cultural designation subjects and a summary The invaluable Subject Access section incorporates use level culture information CM,1992 Myths and Legends John Pemberton,2010-08-30 Myths and Legends brings together the principal mythologies legends and folklore of ancient and modern cultures and expors the relationship that they have with their people and with the major religions of the world Callaloo ,1993 Some special issues devoted to the literatures of other minorities La Torre ,2007 Contemporary Women's Gothic Fiction Gina Wisker,2016-11-04 This book revives and revitalises the literary

Gothic in the hands of contemporary women writers It makes a scholarly lively and convincing case that the Gothic makes horror respectable and establishes contemporary women s Gothic fictions in and against traditional Gothic The book provides new engaging perspectives on established contemporary women Gothic writers with a particular focus on Angela Carter Margaret Atwood and Toni Morrison It explores how the Gothic is malleable in their hands and is used to demythologise oppressions based on difference in gender and ethnicity The study presents new Gothic work and new nuances critiques of dangerous complacency and radical questionings of what is safe and conformist in works as diverse as Twilight Stephenie Meyer and A Girl Walks Home Alone at Night Ana Lily Amirpur as well as by Anne Rice and Poppy Brite It also introduces and critically explores postcolonial vampire and neohistorical Gothic and women s ghost stories Grotesque Touch Amy King,2021-09-13 In this book Amy K King examines how violence between women in contemporary Caribbean and American texts is rooted in plantation slavery Analyzing films television shows novels short stories poems book covers and paintings King shows how contemporary media reuse salacious and stereotypical depictions of relationships between women living within the plantation system to confront its legacy in the present The vestiges of these relationships enslavers and enslaved women employers and domestic servants lovers and rivals negate characters efforts to imagine non abusive approaches to power and agency King s work goes beyond any other study to date to examine the intersections of gender sexuality race ethnicity class ability and nationality in U S and Caribbean depictions of violence between women in the wake of slavery

Caribbean Literature in English Louis James,2014-07-30 Caribbean Literature in English places its subject in its precise regional context The Caribbean generally considered as one area is highly discrete in its topography race and languages including mainland Guyana the Atlantic island of Barbados the Lesser Antilles Trinidad and Jamaica whose size and history gave it an early sense of separate nationhood Beginning with Raleigh s Discoverie of Guiana 1596 this innovative study traces the sometimes surprising evolution of cultures which shared a common experience of slavery but were intimately related to individual local areas The approach is interdisciplinary examining the heritage of the plantation era and the issues of language and racial identity it created From this base Louis James reassesses the phenomenal expansion of writing in the contemporary period He traces the influence of pan Caribbean movements and the creation of an expatriate Caribbean identity in Britain and America Britain is considered as a West Indian island created by colonization in reverse Further sections treat the development of a Caribbean aesthetic and the repossession of cultural roots from Africa and Asia Balancing an awareness of the regional identity of Caribbean literature with an exploration of its place in world and postcolonial literatures this study offers a panoramic view that has become one of the most vital of the new literatures in English This accessible overview of Caribbean writing will appeal to the general reader and student alike and particularly to all who are interested in or studying Caribbean literatures and culture postcolonial studies Commonwealth new literatures and contemporary literature and drama Dictionary of Caribbean English Usage Richard Allsopp,Jeannette Allsopp,2003

This remarkable new dictionary represents the first attempt in some four centuries to record the state of development of English as used across the entire Caribbean region Essays Susan Roberson,2013-08-12 Positioning the Caribbean within the complexes of the world community this collection uses the metaphor of the global Caribbean to discuss the multiple movements identities epistemologies and politics of the West Indies Examining the processes of the transnational transport of peoples languages and literatures between the Caribbean Africa Europe and North America the essays look at the complexities of geographical intellectual and artistic migrations at the ways Caribbean writers negotiate the construction of literary and political identities and the ways in which the Caribbean influenced writers and thinkers in North America or Europe These kinds of reciprocal exchanges locate the islands of the Caribbean within a global context as recipients of multi and trans national influence and as makers of transnational meaning Building on the dynamic processes of globalization this collection suggests that the Caribbean provides a perspective for thinking about multiple intercultural connections with the Caribbean that include antebellum New Englanders the Jews of twentieth century Europe literary artists of seventeenth and eighteenth century England and France and modern pleasure seekers A culturally and linguistically rich region of the world the Caribbean also provides a fascinating literature of its own that is complicated by its history of migration and colonization as well as by its location between continents Tituba, Reluctant Witch of Salem Elaine G. Breslaw,1997-08 Tituba a young house servant from the West Indies allegedly influenced and encouraged occult activities among teenage girls in 17th century Massachusetts which led to the infamous witch hunts of Salem This book offers an imaginative reconstruction of what might have been Tituba s past TIMES LITERARY SUPPLEMENT A valuable probe of how myths can feed hysteria THE WASHINGTON POST BOOK WORLD 15 photos YLG Pamphlet , RSPB Spotlight Bats Nancy Jennings,2018-10-04 RSPB Spotlight Bats is packed with eye catching informative colour photographs and features succinct detailed text written by a knowledgeable naturalist Thanks to their speed size and nocturnal habitats bats are among the most interesting and least understood mammals that frequent our homes and gardens From their ability to make sounds that are above the range of human hearing to their reliance on echolocation to navigate objects and find prey their unique behaviour means that bats are seldom seen or heard With nearly 1 400 species worldwide bats make up around 25 per cent of all mammal species Spotlight Bats features all 17 species that live and breed in the British Isles as well as an array of the most fascinating bats from around the world including some of the more charismatic species such as vampire bats and fishing bats Nancy Jennings uses up to date research to provide insights into the lives of these elusive mammals covering the biology diversity evolution and ecology of bats as well as their interactions with humans and folklore The Spotlight series introduces readers to the lives and behaviours of our favourite animals with eye catching colour photography and informative expert text West Winds Riaz Phillips,2022-08-16 A beautiful cookbook that celebrates the wonderfully diverse flavors in Caribbean cooking with over 100 riveting recipes to try Introducing West Winds a joyous celebration of Caribbean cooking with a special focus on the
