Gauchos and Foreigners Ariana Huberman, 2010-12-29 In Gauchos and Foreigners Glossing Culture and Identity in the Argentine Countryside Ariana Huberman discusses the relationship between the gaucho figure and the foreigner in Argentine rural literature The narratives of William Henry Hudson Benito Lynch and Alberto Gerchunoff present English scientists and travelers as well as Jewish and Italian immigrants in direct contact with the gaucho in the Argentine and Uruguayan countryside The book shows how the intent to define and translate terms from the national glossary the gaucho his lifestyle and habitat and from foreign cultures ultimately questions these terms capacity to represent a specific culture It traces a series of writing practices that challenge the concepts of native and foreign as stable categories of representation by conveying identity and culture across multiple linguistic social and cultural registers The reading of these unique practices of translation hopes to offer a fresh approach to the multicultural scope of Argentine literature
