Totem Tales W. S. Phillips, 2015-06-26

Excerpt from Totem Tales: Indian Stories Indian Told Gathered in the Pacific Northwest. There are two wee tots of few summers not far from where I write who have listened to the tales of the Talking Pine with silent interest and wonderment. Their eyes grow big and bigger as they listen to the wonderful doings of the strange characters of which I write and when the story is finished they climb up in my lap and two tiny heads covered with curls that shine like the flecks of gold among the mountain river sands nestle close to me and baby arms circle round my neck. They snuggle close to me awed half believing that it is all real but so interested in the fairy folk that they want just one more story and I must not deny it. May their baby sweetness never grow less and may their Tah mah na wis be always ready to protect them on their journey through the life allotted to mortals which is after all only a grown up arrangement of the Talking Pine tales that they now love to hear and half believe.
