Taliban Islam Oil And The New Great Game In Central Asia:

Taliban Ahmed Rashid,2000 The American bombing of terrorist bases in Afghanistan under the protection of the Islamic fundamentalist Taliban movement has brought the Taliban into focus as the most radical and extreme Islamic movement in the world The movement its leaders and its aims are surrounded by secrecy Taliban Ahmed Rashid,2010-04-20 Rashid brings the shadowy world of the Taliban into sharp focus He explains its rise to power its impact on Afghanistan and the region its role in oil and gas company decisions and the effects of changing American attitudes toward the Taliban Jihadi Groups, Nuclear Pakistan, and the New Great Game , Jihadi Groups, Nuclear Pakistan, and the New Great Game Mohammed E. Ahrari,2001 For the United States and other nations concerned with security in South and Central Asia one of the most ominous trends has been the growing influence of Jihadist groups in Pakistan which feel obligated to wage holy war against everything that they perceive as non Islamic Their objective would be a Pakistani government similar to the Taliban regime in Afghanistan The danger this would pose to regional stability and U S interests is clear The author assesses Jihadi groups from the framework of a new Great Game for influence in Central Asia involving an array of states He argues that if this competition leads to increased violence outside states including the United States could be drawn in On the other hand if the region stabilizes it could provide solid economic and political partners for the United States A well designed American strategy Ahrari contends might help avoid crises or catastrophe SSI summary Ethnic Identity and National Conflict in China A. Acharya,R. Gunaratna,W. Pengxin,2010-06-21 While not discounting the potency of the radical Islamic religious discourse in fuelling the contemporary wave of terrorism this book makes an attempt to explain terrorism in China as an ethno nationalist conflict rooted in issues involving minority identity However a largely domestic conflict is being hijacked by the radical Islamists Falling Terrorism and Rising Conflicts Hooman Peimani,2003-09-30 The Taliban s fall and the massive American military and political presence in South and West Asia have created grounds for a polarization into two camps India Iran and Russia to which China is affiliated and the United States and Pakistan In Peimani s analysis their incompatible interests will push them towards confrontations with regional and international implications Contrary to expectations the fall of the Taliban did not bring peace and stability to Afghanistan The Afghan interim government is simply too weak to act as a central government this results in the re emergence of warlords turf wars and the expansion of drug trafficking This unstable situation may well result in the emergence of Taliban like groups Added to this the threat of the spillover of instability from Afghanistan into neighboring regions on the one hand and the rapid expansion of American military and political power in Central Asia the Caucasus the Persian Gulf Afghanistan and Pakistan on the other have created fear among the regional powers The stated indefinite stay of American forces well after the end of the anti terrorist war in Afghanistan has worsened that fear as it reflected the American government s plan to pursue certain strategic interests unrelated to that war Consequently as Peimani shows the regional anti terrorist coalition has disintegrated in the absence of a common objective to help focus the region. Fear of the long term American objectives and those of its Pakistani ally in South and West Asia incompatible with those of the regional powers have facilitated the creation of two camps consisting of Iran India and Russia to which China is affiliated and Pakistan and the United States. Respectively these implicit and explicit camps are likely to collide over their regional interests especially in the strategically important energy producing Persian Gulf and Caspian Sea regions.

Transforming Tajikistan Hélène Thibault, 2018-01-31 Tajikistan is a key state in Central Asia and will become crucial to the region. Thibault is assistant professor in Political Science at Nazarbayev University in Kazakhstan since 2016. Prior to that she had been a postdoctoral researcher at the Chair for the Study of Religious Pluralism and the Center for International Studies at the Université de Montréal. Apart from research activities she also took part in multiple election observation missions with the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE) in Ukraine. Regional power balance as it transitions away from Soviet government systems and responds to the rise of Chinese financial power alongside the continuing presence of Russian military might. This book demonstrates how Soviet structures in Tajikistan have been transformed into state structures and how national identities are formed. Helene Thibault focuses on the differences between secular nationhood in Tajikistan and an increasingly popular and influential born again Muslim identity. Featuring extensive and original primary source material including 12 months of ethnographic fieldwork Thibault demonstrates the profound and lasting influence of Soviet power structures and attitudes and how secular and religious identities clash when building a new state in the region.

Afghanistan's Political Stability Ahmad Shaye Qassem, 2016-03-16 Political stability has been a central theme of policy for all governments and political systems in the history of modern Afghanistan. Since its inception in the mid nineteenth century the country experimented with a diverse succession of political systems and state ideologies matched by few other countries. Political histories in the span of less than nine decades since independence in 1919 the Afghan state was substantially restructured at least a dozen times. This volume looks at Afghanistan's historic relations with Central and South Asia, ethno nationalism and development, Soviet occupation and transformation of relations with Pakistan, stability of the Islamic State and regional cooperation. It examines how Afghanistan's different political systems reformed and readjusted policies to make them more conducive to political stability. Yet political stability at best has remained a dream unrealized in Afghanistan.

Xinjiang and China's Rise in Central Asia - A History Michael E. Clarke, 2011-03-08 This book provides an account of how Beijing's evolving integrationist policies in Xinjiang have influenced its foreign policy in Central Asia since the establishment of the People's Republic in 1949 and how the policy of integration is related to China's concern for security and to its pursuit of increased power and influence in Central Asia.

Geopolitics and Culture Sanna Tuoma, Sigrid Kaasik-Krogerus, Saara Ratilainen, 2025-02-15 Inspired by popular feminist subaltern and ecocritical geopolitics Geopolitics and Culture Narrating Eastern European and Eurasian Worlds presents new research of culture in the Eastern European context. This volume highlights the symbolic production of power which although located outside political institutions engenders geopolitical boundaries and defines cultural margins Analyzing multilingual materials such as blockbuster films digital visuals blogs and discussion forums print fiction and TV series museum exhibitions and everyday cultural practice this book argues for the importance of studying the links between geopolitical narratives global and regional hierarchies and popular cultural production The contributors advance a decolonizing methodology which challenges the cultural and geopolitical hierarchies inside Eastern Europe and Eurasia while also casting a critical eye on the geopolitical hierarchies of global Anglophone media cultures China, Xinjiang and Central Asia Colin Mackerras, Michael Clarke, 2009-04-14 Central Asia and Xinjiang the far north western province of China are of increasing international importance The United States having established military bases in Central Asia after September 2001 has now become a force in what was previously predominantly a Russian sphere of influence whilst China Russia and Iran all continue to exert strong influence These external international influences have had a significant impact on local politics with the overthrow of a long standing regime in Kyrgyzstan continued unrest and opposition to the current regime in Uzbekistan and the intensification of Chinese control in Xinjiang This book explores the effect of global and local dynamics across the region global influences include the War on Terror and international competition for energy resources local dynamics include Islamic revival Central Asian nationalism drugs trafficking economic development and integration The authors argue that these multiple challenges in fact unite Xinjiang and Central Asia in a common struggle for identities and economic development This book provides a comprehensive overview of the region's historical significance the contemporary international forces which affect the region and of current political economic and cultural developments A Passage to Nuristan Nicholas Barrington, Reinhard Schlagintweit, Joseph T.

Kendrick, 2005-12-20 A first hand account of extraordinary travel it is a reminiscent of Short Walk in the Hindu Kush This book about Afghanistan is highly topical Despite its recent upheavals for most of the twentieth century Afghanistan was a sleepy faraway place of little interest to outsiders Nowhere was the romance and mystery attached to the country more dramatically expressed than in its Nuristan region formerly Kafiristan Land of Infidels Here the spectacular mountains and lush but inaccessible valleys have for centuries been home to one of the world's least known peoples Isolated in their mountain villages the Nuristanis were only converted to Islam at the end of the nineteenth century A Passage to Nuristan is the story of three young westerners a Briton an American and a German who in 1960 set out to penetrate a land that few westerners had set eyes on Unable to rely on maps or information on what would confront them they were guided step by precarious step into the unknown world previously immortalised by Kipling's The Man Who Would be King This is the contemporary record now published for the first time of an extraordinary journey It will fascinate all who are interested in Afghanistan Central Asia and travel At the same time it captures the essence of a time and a place now gone forever and energy security that examines the close relationship between US military supremacy in oil rich regions and America's maintenance of global power. It is suitable for scholars of US foreign policy and international relations as well as policy makers grappling with the importance of energy security. Xinjiang - China's Northwest Frontier K.

Warikoo, 2016-03-02 Xinjiang is the pivot of Asia where the frontiers of China Tibet India Afghanistan Pakistan and Central Asia approach each other. The growing Uyghur demand for a separate homeland and continuing violence in Xinjiang have brought this region into the focus of national and international attention. With Xinjiang becoming the hub of trans Asian trade and traffic and also due to its rich energy resources Uyghur Muslims of Xinjiang are poised to assert their ethno political position thereby posing serious challenge to China's authority in the region. This book offers a new perspective on the region with a focus on social economic and political developments in Xinjiang in modern and contemporary times. Drawing on detailed analyses by experts on Xinjiang from India Central Asia Russia Taiwan and China this book presents a coherent concise and rich analysis of ethnic relations Uyghur resistance China's policy in Xinjiang and its economic relations with its Central Asian neighbours. It is of interest to those studying in Chinese and Central Asian politics and society International Relations and Security Studies. The Forty-Year War in Afghanistan Tariq Ali, 2021-11-30

The occupation of Afghanistan is over and a balance sheet can be drawn. These essays on war and peace in the region reveal Tariq Ali at his sharpest and most prescient. Rarely has there been such an enthusiastic display of international unity as that which greeted the invasion of Afghanistan in 2001. Compared to Iraq Afghanistan became the good war. But a stalemate ensued and the Taliban waited out the NATO contingents. Today with the collapse of the puppet regime in Kabul what does the future hold for a traumatised Afghan people? Will China become the dominant influence in the country? Tariq Ali has been following the wars in Afghanistan for forty years. He opposed Soviet military intervention in 1979 predicting disaster. He was also a fierce critic of its NATO sequel Operation Enduring Freedom. In a series of trenchant commentaries he has described the tragedies inflicted on Afghanistan as well as the semi Talibanisation and militarisation of neighbouring Pakistan. Most of his predictions have proved accurate. The Forty Year War in Afghanistan: A Chronicle Foretold brings together the best of his writings and includes a new introduction. The Regional Security Puzzle around Afghanistan Helena Rytövuori-Apunen, 2016-05-23

Western military presence wanes in Afghanistan and a transformed security environment challenges borders and stability in Central Asia. This book examines how the tensions relating to the reorganization of external military presence interact with regional states' ambitions and challenge the borders already contested by numerous dividing lines. It studies a complex political landscape across which radical Islam connected with international terrorism is feared to spread as the international mission initiated in the wake of the 9/11 attacks winds down. Al-Qaida in Afghanistan Anne Stenersen, 2017-07-26

This book presents an alternative narrative of al Qaida's aims goals and strategies prior to the events of 9/11. Globalization and Human Rights Jesús Ballesteros, Encarnación Fernández Ruiz-Gálvez, Pedro Talavera, 2012-04-14 Globalisation turns out to be untenable because it does not guarantee minimum social equity peace and respect for the environment and therefore does not guarantee the effective accomplishment of human rights This book analyzes this issue and raises proposals for a new perspective The first part describes the soft threats to human rights derived from the devaluation of the politics and the productive economy with regard to the finance It entails the concealment of the reality in the shape of exploitation as the tax havens and in the shape of marginalization of the persons with different abilities The second part include a study of hard threats to human rights and examines two cases of failed states Afghanistan and Somalia in which the violence has supplanted the politics and the economy In view of these situations it is necessary to rethink the force of classic ius gentium and the humanitarian right The third part presents the European Union as a legal and political space in which conditions of a worthy life are better defended by means of the Primacy of Practical Reason and Social State of Law and by the requirement of peace as the main rule of international relations Casebook on Insurgency and Revolutionary Warfare ,2012

Pamirian Crossroads and Beyond Hermann Kreutzmann,2024-08-05 In Pamirian Crossroads and Beyond Hermann Kreutzmann offers insights in his fieldwork based research in High Asia during four decades A human geographical perspective is pursued in which case studies about colonial and post colonial boundary making exchange relations of mountain communities across international borders the transformation of agricultural and pastoral practices and the effects of modernisation strategies in neighbouring countries are centred in the Hindukush Wakhan Quadrangle Pamirian Crossroads Karakoram Mountains and Himalaya Empirical evidence is augmented by in depth archival research thus allowing a perspective from the 19th to the 21st century By shifting the focus to mountain peripheries and emphasising spaces in between urban centres of power in Afghanistan Pakistan China and the Central Asian Republics different arenas of confrontation and effective changes emerge
