The Guests At The Gate:

African Hosts & Their Guests W. E. A. van Beek, Annette M. Schmidt, 2012 Africa is a theme park for Western tourists to experience untouched wilderness untamed nature and truly authentic cultures where the hosts too are part of a discourse about the other and ourselves about wilderness danger and roots Tourism is important for Africa international tourist arrivals to Africa continue to grow income from tourism is crucial to national economies and tourism investments are considered among the most profitable This edited volume deals with the interaction of local communities with tourists coming into their areas and villages Based upon a common theoretical approach fourteen cases of African tourism are discussed which involve direct contact between hosts and guests The viewpoint throughout is from the side of the locals establishing how the processes of interaction shape each small scale destination Crucial in Africa is the fact that the large majority of tourism is game oriented and the interaction between locals and visitors is very much tainted by this fact Central is the notion of the tourist bubble the infrastructure that is generated locally and internationally for hosting tourists as it is this institutional interface that tends to impact on the local society and culture not the tourists themselves directly The examples come from all over Africa from the Sahara to the Eastern Cape and from Kenya to Ghana All contributions are based upon original fieldwork Walter van Beek is professor of anthropology at Tilburg University and Senior Researcher at the African Studies Centre Leiden Annette Schmidt is curator of the African department at the National Museum of Ethnology in Leiden and is an archaeologist with a long experience in cultural management projects

The Guest Cat Takashi Hiraide, 2014-01-21 A wonderful sui generis novel about a visiting cat who brings joy into a couple's life in Tokyo A bestseller in France and winner of Japan's Kiyama Shohei Literary Award The Guest Cat by the acclaimed poet Takashi Hiraide is a subtly moving and exceptionally beautiful novel about the transient nature of life and idiosyncratic but deeply felt ways of living A couple in their thirties live in a small rented cottage in a quiet part of Tokyo they work at home freelance copy editing they no longer have very much to say to one another But one day a cat invites itself into their small kitchen It leaves but the next day comes again and then again and again Soon they are buying treats for the cat and enjoying talks about the animal and all its little ways Life suddenly seems to have more promise for the husband and wife the days have more light and color The novel brims with new small joys and many moments of staggering poetic beauty but then something happens As Kenzaburo Oe has remarked Takashi Hiraide's work really shines His poetry which is remarkably cross hatched with beauty has been acclaimed here for its seemingly endless string of shape shifting objects and experiences whose splintering effect is enacted via a unique combination of speed and minutiae

Visitors From Mars Philip Sulumeti, In the past few decades humanity has made efforts to send people to the planet Mars But how should humans react if against all expectations visitors arrive from Mars instead This absurdity is magnified when the aliens lay claim to their land putting the village at a crossroads This story along with seven other short tales in this book is designed to capture the reader's imagination with captivating plots Written in an African setting the stories offer readers a glimpse into life in Africa The book is especially useful for senior school and college students seeking an entertaining pastime It provides an opportunity to enhance their command of the English language and advance their writing skills The Régime Change Man Rory Harden,2015-01-15 Who thinks running guns to Africa should be a nice little earner Who s accidentally acquired a soccer mad private army of child soldiers What happened at the Glue Factory Who forgot to switch off the fountains Oh and by the way Why is Africa s richest country so poor A deceptive plot to take over the richest country in Africa in the name of Democracy An ethically challenged businessman on a voyage of self discovery A glimpse into the dark heart of the New Democratic Consensus The Eastern Mirror; an Illustration of the Sacred Scriptures; in which the Customs of Oriental Nations are Developed by the Writings of the Most Celebrated Travellers W. funeral of her old piano teacher Jakub Frydman At the graveside is rabbi Salomon Steinberg and several former pupils As the service draws to an end a figure is glimpsed through the mist throwing a wreath into the open grave And as the mourners file out of the cemetery they hear an explosion the grave of Jakub Frydman has been destroyed and the perpetrator the unexpected guest at the graveside has made a clean getaway But who was the intended victim Was it an antisemitic attack but against the old teacher or the rabbi Or was it drugs related and Dania and her investigative journalist brother the targets Now Dania has to trade Dundee for Warsaw to follow up leads on an international drugs syndicate and find a resolution to this most unexpected and deadly of crimes Praise for Hania Allen Nicely nasty in all the right places The story rattles along until bringing the curtain down with an unnerving twist Craig Robertson A fresh new find for crime fans the plot is intriguing the characters are well drawn and the end comes with an unnerving twist Extremely readable Sunday Post Captivating characters and an intriguing plot A great new find for crime fans Lin Anderson Pitch perfect a witty tense crime novel written in a highly readable style Russel D McLean

Emotions across Cultures David Konstan,2022-06-21 It is now recognized that emotions have a history In this book eleven scholars examine a variety of emotions in ancient China and classical Greece in their historical and social context A general introduction presents the major issues in the analysis of emotions across cultures and over time in a given tradition Subsequent chapters consider how specific emotions evolve and change For example whereas for early Chinese thinkers worry was a moral defect it was later celebrated as a sign that one took responsibility for things In ancient Greece hope did not always focus on a positive outcome and in this respect differed from what we call hope Daring not to do or undaring was itself an emotional value in early China While Aristotle regarded the inability to feel anger as servile the Roman Stoic Seneca rejected anger entirely Hatred and revenge were encouraged at one moment in China and repressed at another Ancient Greek responses to tragedy do not map directly onto modern emotional registers and yet are similar to classical Chinese and Indian descriptions There are differences in the very way emotions are conceived This book will speak to anyone interested in the many ways that human beings feel
