Mother Outlaws Andrea O'Reilly,2004-05-13 Feminist scholars of motherhood distinguish between mothering and motherhood and argue that the latter is a patriarchal institution that is oppressive to women Few scholars however have considered how mothering as a female defined and centred experience may be a site of empowerment for women This collection is the first to do so Mother Outlaws examines how mothers imagine and implement theories and practices of mothering that are empowering to women Central to this inquiry is the recognition that mothers and children benefit when the mother lives her life and practices mothering from a position of agency authority authenticity and autonomy Why Can't We Talk? John Backman,2012-10-01 Learn How to Contribute More Effectively and Compassionately to the Conversations that Shape Your Life Anything could happen when we start to talk Nothing will happen if we don't That alone makes the way of dialogue a journey worth taking from the Epilogue Think of an issue that makes your blood boil Now imagine lunch with a friend who is just as passionate about it on the other side How can the two of you even broach the issue let alone hear each other with curiosity and compassion The answer begins long before the lunch does by learning to engage dialogue as a habit of the heart an inner transformation that the ancient practices of Christian spirituality can address This highly readable and timely guide to restoring dialogue shows you how to cultivate this transformation while preparing you to approach your adversaries with curiosity civility and compassion With dialogue expert John Backman leading the way you will Examine the obstacles that keep you from dialogue black and white thinking a distraction lifestyle the fear of change and negative impressions from others Explore the strength of character from which healthy dialogue springs and the work of the soul that cultivates them Learn practical guidelines for dialogue and how they work in an imperfect world Encounter anecdotes of dialogue in action from resolutions of interpersonal conflict to difficult dialogues on some of the most divisive issues of our age Use provocative questions at the end of each chapter to stimulate group discussion and individual reflection
