The Aesthetics of Clarity and Confusion Geoffrey A. Baker, 2016-12-22 What should literature with political aims look like This book traces two rival responses to this question one prizing clarity and the other confusion which have dominated political aesthetics since the late nineteenth century Revisiting recurrences of the avant garde experimentalism versus critical realism debates from the twentieth century Geoffrey A Baker highlights the often violent reductions at work in earlier debates Instead of prizing one approach over the other as many participants in those debates have done Baker focuses on the manner in which the debate itself between these approaches continues to prove productive and enabling for politically engaged writers This book thus offers a way beyond the simplistic polarity of realism vs anti realism in a study that is focused on influential strands of thought in England France and Germany and that covers well known authors such as Zola Nietzsche Arnold Mann Brecht Sartre Adorno Lukács Beauvoir Morrison and Coetzee

Kocypков's World Dèmeublè Milena Katsarska,Yana Rowland,Rositsa Dekova,2019-07-05 This volume is a collection of words in honor of our colleague teacher and friend Yordan Kosturkov It is but a feeble attempt to lock within book covers not unlike the bare walls of an unfurnished room the rich and multifaceted world the writer poet scholar translator intellectual and human being Kosturkov has been building for many decades brick by brick stone by stone The first part in this collection revolves around the idea of the rational and disciplined knowledge in constructing Arguments The second and somewhat unruly part strives to capture the elusive and the emotional as well as the mis remembered in our Affinities The third gives our readers the record of the archeologist who has embarked on an excavation in the Archives It is in the dynamics between these three parts that the editors have tried to approximate the sense of the world created and inhabited by Yordan Kosturkov if we threw all furniture out the window Catalog of Copyright Entries.
