The Gruber Wagon Works The Place Where Time Stood Still:

The Gruber Wagon Works Carol J. Hunsberger, 2005 The Gruber Wagon Works documents the history of the Gruber family and its small business that operated from 1882 through 1971 in Mount Pleasant Pennsylvania From its inception through the remaining decades of the pre automotive era the Gruber Works was representative of the many small wagon making businesses that occurred throughout the United States As the automotive era emerged wagon making businesses typically either transformed or vanished but the Gruber business an exception continued to make wagons and other conveyances until the 1950s and to repair these vehicles through 1971 In the 1970s the Gruber building and its contents were acquired by the US Army Corps of Engineers as part of a flood control project and moved about five miles to a site nearer the city of Reading after which ownership was transferred to Berks County and since which time it has served as a unique museum and interpretive center devoted to documenting and explaining the tools materials technology and process of wagon making Listing of Education in Archeological Programs, the LEAP Clearinghouse ... Summary Report ,1990

Wagon-making in the United States During the Late-19th Through Mid-20th Centuries Paul A. Kube, 2005 Wagon Making in the United States is perhaps the best available description of the tools materials technology and process of wagon making in the US during the late pre automotive period The featured centerpiece of this book is a masters thesis completed in 19068 at Millersville College now University Millersville Pennsylvania by Paul A Kube Titled A Study of the Gruber Wagon Works at Mt Pleasant Pennsylvania this thesis describes the content structure and functioning of the Gruber Wagon Works as that business existed in the middle part of the 20th century a rare late surviving representative of an industry that had at one time been essential to the transportation needs of the agrarian and early industrial national economy Contributions by Clayton E Ray and Cathy L Wegener provide an introduction to the significance of the Kube thesis a brief history of wagon making in the United States a review of the relocation and management of the Gruber Wagon Works as an interpretive center during and after the mid 1970s a compilation of surviving production records of the Gruber Works and a biographical sketch of Paul Kube The Carriage Journal: Vol. 57, No. 5 October 2019 Deborah George, Ken Wheeling, Kathleen Haak, Kenneth C.
