The Healing Power Of Peace And Nonviolence:

The Healing Power of Peace and Nonviolence Bernhard Häring, 1988      Diverse Voices in Modern US Moral Theology Charles E. Curran, 2019-02-15 In Charles E. Curran's latest book Diverse Voices in Modern US Moral Theology he presents the diverse voices of US Catholic moral theologians from the mid twentieth century to the present. The book discusses eleven key individuals in the development and evolution of moral theology as well as the New Wine/New Wineskins movement. This diversity, which differs from the monolithic understanding of moral theology that prevailed until recently, comes from the diverse historical circumstances or Sitz im Leben of the authors. Each of these theologians developed her or his approach in light of these circumstances and in response to shifts in the three audiences of moral theology: the Church, the academy, and the broader society. By exploring this diversity, Curran recognizes the deep divisions that exist within Catholic moral theology between the so-called liberal and conservative approaches and acknowledges the need for greater dialogue between them, providing a deeper understanding of the methods and approaches of these significant figures. This new book from a major figure in the field will be an important resource for students and scholars of US Catholic moral theology and for anyone seeking to understand the current state of moral theology in America today.

Soteriologies of India and Their Role in the Perception of Disability Anand Rao, 2004 At the turn of the century and the beginning of the new Millennium, India has made extraordinary industrial and economic progress. At the same time, the subcontinent is faced with innumerable problems in the area of basic social services. Religion plays an important role in the interpersonal relationship and social interaction of the people. Religion is not only worship and prayer but dictates such factors as who could come in physical contact with the other and who has the right to draw water from a well and who is deprived of it. Because of these factors, it is necessary to look at the perception of disability in the soteriologies of India. This study confines itself to Hinduism as the major religion of India that is based on the achievement of salvation and thus to escape the cycle of birth, death, and rebirth, and Christianity on the other hand that is involved in trying to improve the conditions of the poor and the needy and its main precept is the love of neighbours. It would be interesting to pursue these distinctions in reviewing the
