Theology of George MacDonald John R. de Jong, 2021-01-01 George MacDonald 1824 1905 was writing at a time of Evangelical unease In a society ravaged by Asiatic cholera numbed by levels of infant mortality and fearful of revolution and the toxicity of industry to name but a few of the many challenges the gospel proclaiming eternal damnation for unbelievers was hardly good news rather Christianity was increasingly viewed as the source of bad news and a tool of state oppression MacDonald agreed in his view the church had become a vampire sucking the blood of her children instead of offering them Eucharistic life In contrast like Christ MacDonald offers us a child Although at first sight a familiar Romantic incarnation in MacDonald s theology the child becomes an unlikely icon challenging the vampire s kingdom and confronting the foundations of much of Western theology John R de Jong s meticulously researched study of MacDonald s work especially his realist and fantasy novels in its Victorian context is of more than historical interest In light of the growth of fundamentalist expressions of Christianity we are encouraged to consider embracing MacDonald s radical solution to religious vampirism becoming children
