The Sisters Georg Ebers, 2018-09-21 Reproduction of the original The Sisters by Georg Ebers      The Sisters — Complete Georg Ebers, 2022-06-02 Georg Ebers The Sisters Complete is a richly woven narrative that explores the lives of two sisters navigating the complexities of love ambition and societal expectations in a historical context Set against the backdrop of ancient Egypt Ebers employs a vivid and descriptive literary style that immerses readers in the culture and traditions of the time The novel is noted for its meticulous attention to detail and character development reflecting the author's deep appreciation for Egyptian history and its influence on human relationships Ebers masterfully balances historical authenticity with melodramatic elements creating a compelling read that engages both the intellect and emotions of the audience Georg Ebers a prominent German Egyptologist novelist and playwright of the 19th century drew upon his extensive knowledge of ancient cultures to enrich his writing Ebers academic background and travels throughout Egypt informed his literary works allowing him to create authentic settings and narratives His fascination with ancient civilizations fueled his desire to portray their human experiences making his works both educational and entertaining The Sisters Complete is highly recommended for readers who appreciate historical fiction infused with emotional depth and cultural richness Ebers unique ability to blend history with relatable themes makes this novel a captivating choice for avid readers and those seeking to explore the intricate tapestry of human relationships through a historical lens      The Sisters of Serapis (Historical Novel) Georg Ebers, 2021-05-07 The Sisters is a historical novel set in the 2nd century BC that features the story of the twin sisters Klea and Irene growing up within the precincts of the temple of Serapis and serving as its wards This carefully crafted ebook is formatted for your eReader with a functional and detailed table of contents In front of these early visitors to the temple walked a man with a long staff in his right hand speaking to the two gentlemen who followed with the air of a professional guide who is accustomed to talk as if he were reading to his audience out of an invisible book and whom the hearers are unwilling to interrupt with questions because they know that his knowledge scarcely extends beyond exactly what he says Of his two remarkable looking hearers one was wrapped in a long and splendid robe and wore a rich display of gold chains and rings while the other wore nothing over his short chiton but a Roman toga thrown over his left shoulder      Marriage with a Deceased Wife's Sister. Report of Proceedings of a Meeting in Opposition to the Deceased Wife's Sister Bill Held ... on ... June 7, 1883, Etc Marriage, 1883      Mirrors of Destruction Omer Bartov, 2000-08-24 Mirrors of Destruction examines the relationship between total war state organized genocide and the emergence of modern identity Here Omer Bartov demonstrates that in the twentieth century there have been intimate links between military conflict mass murder of civilian populations and the definition and categorization of groups and individuals These connections were most clearly manifested in the Holocaust as the Nazis attempted to exterminate European Jewry under cover of a brutal war and with the stated goal of creating a racially pure Aryan population and Germanic empire The Holocaust however can only be understood within the context of the century's predilection for applying massive and systematic methods of destruction to resolve conflicts over identity To provide the context for the Final Solution Bartov examines the changing relationships between Jews and non Jews in France and Germany from the outbreak of World War I to the present Rather than presenting a comprehensive history or a narrative from a single perspective Bartov views the past century through four interrelated prisms He begins with an analysis of the glorification of war and violence from its modern birth in the trenches of World War I to its horrifying culmination in the presentation of genocide by the SS as a glorious undertaking He then examines the pacifist reaction in interwar France to show how it contributed to a climate of collaboration with dictatorship and mass murder The book goes on to argue that much of the discourse on identity throughout the century has had to do with identifying and eliminating society's elusive enemies or enemies from within Bartov concludes with an investigation of modern apocalyptic visions showing how they have both encouraged mass destructions and opened a way for the reconstruction of individual and collective identities after a catastrophe Written with verve Mirrors of Destruction is rich in interpretations and theoretical tools and provides a new framework for understanding a central trait of modern history

The Railway Conductor, 1908      Prayers from God Tracy McLane, 2016-06-25 I was instructed by the Holy Spirit to publish His prayers In 1997 my life took a change that no one saw coming it was the hand of the Lord for intercession When I was away from family I had to either turn to Jesus or to the things of this world However the Father had need of me and I had need of the Father and it was prayer As a willing vessel He allowed me to be used to intercede for others as well as myself I was able to see healing military deployment assignments change and the death angel move We often times hear that old saying or song that someone prayed for me had me on their mind took the time to pray for me I thank God for my family for praying for me I won't take it for granted that the Father is always interceding for us These are His prayers and I appreciate Him for using me to intercede for others Thank you family for your prayers      Once a Week, 1861      Once a Week S.
