From all appearances Ruth Anne Bond is enviably lucky. Her husband Johnny still treats her like a young lover. Her grown daughter is a staunch friend. Her steady work and devotion to the church have quietly made her a pillar of the community. Then one long Indiana summer brings some unexpected communications including one she has both craved and feared for thirty years. As long hidden truths threaten to emerge for the first time in her marriage Ruth Anne is faced with memories she and Johnny never discuss of a year spent in Saigon in 1968 and a past she has yet to acknowledge. Probing questions of family and faith Patricia Henley offers us a tender far sighted novel about seeking answers and achieving grace.
