Sweet Lemons 2 Venera Fazio, 2014-05-14 Sweet Lemons Venera Fazio, Delia De Santis, 2004 The Heart and the Island Chiara Mazzucchelli, 2015-08-04 In The Heart and the Island Chiara Mazzucchelli explores the strong bond between Sicilian American writers and the island of Sicily Self contained yet connected to the mainland geographically separated from yet politically united to the rest of Italy Sicily occupies a unique position Throughout the twentieth century the sense of a distinct sicilianit or Sicilianness has manifested itself in a corpus of texts that although subsumed under the broader context of Italian literature have distinguished themselves as examples of an exquisitely Sicilian literary experience Mazzucchelli argues that a parallel phenomenon sicilianamericanit has emerged in the United States Focusing on the island s geography history and culture she examines how many American authors of Sicilian descent derive inspiration from their ethnic milieu and lay out a recognizable set of Sicilian culture markers in their works thereby producing a literature that is distinctly Sicilian American Drawing on both Italian and Italian American scholarship The Heart and the Island is the first full length study of Sicilian American literature and it opens a space for new interdisciplinary discussions on what it means to be Italian on both sides of the ocean Sicilian Women Giacomo Pilati, 2008 Sicily Giuseppe Quatrighio, 2011 A Thousand Years in Sicily ~autofilled~ , A Thousand Years in Sicily Giuseppe Quatrighio, 1991 Straight Razor and Other Poems Salvatore Ala, 2012-10-16 Straight Razor and Other Poems brings together Salvatore Ala s new poems and selections from his privately published broadsides It is a beautiful and original collection Both formal and lyrical it is the work of a determined and committed craftsman Comparative Literature for the New Century Giulia De Gasperi, Joseph Pivato, 2018-09-30 Since its beginning Comparative Literature has been characterized as a discipline in crisis But its shifting boundaries are its strength allowing for collaboration and growth and illuminating a path forward In Comparative Literature for the New Century a diverse group of scholars argue for a distinct North American approach to literary studies that includes the promotion of different languages Chapters by senior scholars such as George Elliott Clarke E D Blodgett and Sneja Gunew are placed in dialogue with those by younger scholars including Dominique H tu Maria Cristina Seccia and Ndeye Fatou Ba The writers many of whom are multilingual discuss problems with translation identity and belonging the modern epic the role of tradition minority writing Francophone and Anglophone novels in Africa and politics in literature Engaging with theory history media studies psychology translation studies post colonial studies and gender studies chapters exemplify how the knowledge and tools offered by Comparative Literature can be applied in reading exploring and understanding not only literary productions but also the world at large Presenting some of the most current work being carried out by academics and scholars actively engaged in the field in Canada and abroad Comparative Literature for the New Century promotes the value of Comparative Literature as an interdisciplinary study and assesses future directions it might take Contributors include George Elliott Clarke University of Toronto Dominique H tu Alberta Montreal Monique Tschofen Ryerson Jolene Armstrong

Athabasca E D Blodgett Alberta Ndeye Fatou Ba Ryerson Maria Cristina Seccia Hull Sneja Gunew UBC Deborah Saidero Udine Elizabeth Dahab CSULB Gaetano Rando Wollongong Anna Pia De Luca Udine Mark A McCutcheon Athabasca Giulia De Gasperi PEI and Joseph Pivato Athabasca Subtitling Today Silvia Bruti, Elisa Perego, 2015-11-25 Nowadays subtitling accomplishes several purposes it is meant for diverse audiences and comes in many forms This collection of innovative contributions explores these different manifestations and offers a snapshot of the state of the art of a dynamic and ever evolving field of study This volume intentionally assembles essays that analyse subtitling in various audiovisual genres including television series variety programmes operas operettas feature films and live conferences and that consider various languages such as Chinese English Finnish French Italian Japanese and Polish It underscores both traditional and novel viewpoints and approaches to the subject thus broadening the horizons of such a fascinating field The diversity of topics tackled will encourage further reflection on a well established research area and as such the volume will appeal to both novice and expert researchers and professionals Longings W. J. Manares, 2023-11-16 Longings and other Longer Poems is a captivating collection of poetry that explores the depths of human emotions delving into the complexities of longing desire and introspection Written by a bunch of extraordinary poets this book is a must read for anyone seeking to experience the beauty and power of language One of the most compelling aspects of this collection is the way it embraces the longer poetic form While many contemporary poems are known for their brevity the authors defy convention allowing the themes to unfold and develop over multiple stanzas This deliberate choice imbues each poem with a rich narrative quality drawing readers into a shared experience of profound emotions In a world where attention spans are increasingly shorter Longings and other Longer Poems offers a refreshing departure from the norm Its lengthier compositions not only showcase the authors skill and creativity but also demand the reader's time and focus The poems encourage a slower more deliberate reading experience allowing readers to truly immerse themselves in the emotions and ideas expressed Anti-Italianism W. Connell, F. Gardaphé, 2010-12-20 There has been an odd reluctance on the part of historians of the Italian American experience to confront the discrimination faced by Italians and Americans of Italian ancestry This volume is a bold attempt by an esteemed group of scholars and writers to discuss the question openly by charting the historical and cultural boundaries of stereotypes prejudice and assimilation Contributors offer a continuous series of cultural encounters and experiences in television literature and film that deserve the attention of anyone interested in the larger themes of American history

Embroidered Stories Edvige Giunta, Joseph Sciorra, 2014-07-29 For Italian immigrants and their descendants needlework represents a marker of identity a cultural touchstone as powerful as pasta and Neapolitan music Out of the artifacts of their memory and imagination Italian immigrants and their descendants used embroidering sewing knitting and crocheting to help define who they were and who they have become This book is an interdisciplinary collection of creative work by authors of Italian origin and academic essays The creative works from thirty seven contributors include memoir poetry and visual arts while the collection as a whole explores a multitude of experiences about and approaches to needlework and immigration from a transnational perspective spanning the late nineteenth century to the late twentieth century. At the center of the book over thirty illustrations represent Italian immigrant women's needlework. The text reveals the many processes by which a simple object or even the memory of that object becomes something else through literary visual performance, ethnographic or critical reimagining. While primarily concerned with interpretations of needlework rather than the needlework itself, the editors and contributors to Embroidered Stories remain mindful of its history and its associated cultural values which Italian immigrants brought with them to the United States, Canada, Australia, and Argentina and passed on to their descendants.

Sicilian Palimpsest Ennio I. Rao, 2009 Siciliana Gaetano Cipolla, 2005 Sicily Through Symbolism and Myth Paolo Fiorentino, 2006 Prayers and Devotional Songs of Sicily Peppino Ruggeri, 2009 Writing With An Accent Edvige Giunta, 2016-04-30

Mary Cappello, Louise DeSalvo, Sandra M. Gilbert, Maria Mazziotti Gillan, Carole Maso, Agnes Rossi. These are some of the best-known Italian American writers today. They are part of a literary tradition with mid-twentieth-century roots that began to develop in earnest in the late 1970s and early 1980s. During those decades a number of Italian American women such as Helen Barolini began to publish books that depicted their perspectives on life through the critical lenses of gender, class, and ethnicity. At the end of the twentieth century, this literature finally blossomed into a fully fledged cultural movement that also took into account issues of sexuality, age, illness, and familial and societal abuse. Writing with an Accent takes a look at this vibrant literary movement by discussing those first writers of the 1970s and 1980s as well as later authors. At the center of Edvige Giunta's Writing with an Accent is the literal notion of accent, the marker of linguistic and cultural difference that separates and identifies recent immigrants to the United States. In this study, an accent symbolically embodies the differences and creative strategies through which contemporary Italian American women writers engage Italian American culture in works of fiction, poetry, and memoir. Giunta also looks at the links between the literature and art music film and video produced by contemporary Italian American women The literature of the Italian American women in Writing with an Accent is shaped by the complicated connections these authors maintain with their cultural origins but also and perhaps more importantly by their feminist consciousness and politicized sense of ethnic identity Writing with an Accent celebrates and explores a group of authors who characteristically mix the joy and pain of Italian American life to paint a multifaceted picture of Italian American women and their complex place in U S culture Italian Americana ,2006
