DIY on the Lower East Side Andrew Strombeck,2020-08-01 The severe financial austerity imposed on New York City during the 1975 fiscal crisis resulted in a city falling apart Broken windows crumbling walls and piles of bricks were everywhere While for many this physical decay was a sign that the postwar welfare state had failed for others it represented a site of risky opportunity that could stimulate novel forms of creativity and community In this book Andrew Strombeck explores the legacy of this crisis for the city's literature and art focusing on one neighborhood where changes were acutely felt the Lower East Side In what became a paradigmatic example of gentrification the Lower East Side's population shifted from working class people to Wall Street traders and ad agents This transformation occurred in part because of high profile local artists such as Jean Michel Basquiat Keith Haring Jeff Koons and Kiki Smith but Strombeck argues that neighborhood writers also played a role Drawing on archival research and original author interviews he examines the innovative work of Kathy Acker David Wojnarowicz Miguel Piñero Sylvère Lotringer Lynne Tillman and others and concludes that these writers still have much to teach us about changes in the nature of work and the emergence of a do it yourself ethos DIY on the Lower East Side shows how place and politics shaped literature and how New York City policies adopted at the time continue to shape our world

Architecture and Progress Mark Blumberg,Matthew Hall,2025-11-03 This volume proposes an interdependent relationship between progress and obstacles in architecture and the built environment It challenges the positive notion of progress and the conception of progress and obstacle as a dichotomy For shapers of the world finding the solution is often a mark of progress that becomes embedded in culture society and history Progress is ever present Through the exploration of diverse positions in history theory and practice this book explores the potential utility of the progressively problematic rather than the natural tendency towards the progressively solved Chapters draw on historic spaces technological advancement incorporation of the natural world alternative production and the consideration of human experience both sensory and psychological Challenging the positive connotation of progress the writings also explore reversing the notion of obstacle from disruptive anti tool to obstacle of utilitarian method a useful tool pressing approach and overarching value system This will be interesting reading for upper level students and scholars of Architecture Urban Design Philosophy and Sociology

Anna May Wong Graham Russell Gao Hodges, 2023-01-10 Anna May Wong remains one of Hollywood's best known Chinese American actors Between 1919 and 1960 Anna May Wong starred in over fifty movies sharing billing with stars such as Douglas Fairbanks Sr Marlene Dietrich Joan Crawford Ramon Novarro and Warner Oland Her life though is the prototypical story of an immigrant's difficult path through the prejudices of American culture Born in Los Angeles in 1905 she was the second daughter of seven children born to a laundryman and his wife Childhood experience fueled her fascination with Hollywood By 1919 she secured a small part in her first film The Red Lantern and she continued to act up until her death Her most famous film roles were in The Toll of the Sea Peter Pan The Thief of Baghdad Old San Francisco and Shanghai Express But discrimination against Asians in both in the film industry and society was commonplace and when it came time to make a film version of Pearl Buck's The Good Earth she was passed over for the Chinese female lead role which was ultimately given to the white actor Luise Rainer In a narrative that recalls the pathos of life in Los Angeles's Chinese neighborhoods and the glamour of Hollywood's pleasure palaces Graham Russell Gao Hodges recovers the life of a Hollywood legend
