This section aims to compare and analyze the interconnections between the decisions of international courts and tribunals as a way of exploring and examining judicial dialogue and the development of common legal principles and concepts in all branches of international law. The Yearbook is the first academic journal to present an annual overview of the process of jurisprudential cross fertilization between the courts based on the drafting and systematic classification of legal maxims. The points of law decided by various international courts in the section entitled Decisions of International Courts and Tribunals. A comprehensive and complete survey by eminent international law scholars exploring, evaluating and documenting this process has the potential to enhance our contribution and thus further guide our understanding of how to reduce conflicts and create an effective exchange of legal reasoning between different courts. The aim is to promote a favorable environment for the courts to advance the process of judicial cooperation with a view to the possible harmonization of legal principles governing the global community.

Individual volumes

Volume 1 The 2010 edition of the Global Community Yearbook presents three categories of material wholly beneficial to any international law researcher: International tribunals court opinions excerpted with scholarly skill by General Editor Giuliana Ziccardi Capaldo; expert guidance on those cases in the form of commentary by globally recognized luminaries whom Ziccardi has chosen personally; and more broadly focused introductory essays by similarly prominent scholars whom Ziccardi has also selected for that purpose. In the introductory essays, those scholars take on current topics such as global intellectual property law and policy, the nature of international law and human development, and the legal-political connotation of material support to terrorism. These incisive and knowledgeable introductory articles help frame the debates currently raging in international law. Before this edition leads the reader on to expert commentary on the noteworthy cases from this past year's dockets of the following tribunals: The International Court of Justice, The International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea, WTO Dispute Settlement System, International Criminal Court, International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia, International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda, Court of Justice of the European Union. Ziccardi has arranged the sections of this volume according to that list of tribunals and she has included a short targeted index for each of those sections, making any research in this volume efficient and fruitful. The 2010 edition of the Global Community Yearbook also gives researchers an illuminating tour through the varied and dynamic law of regional and organizational courts. In the court opinion excerpts and expert commentary that fill this volume, researchers will find detailed guidance on a rich diversity of legal topics. On these questions and a host of others, this volume provides to students, scholars and practitioners alike a valuable combination of expert discussion and direct quotes from the court opinions to which that discussion relates. The courts covered in this edition include: The Court of Justice, The European Court of Human Rights, Inter American Court of Human Rights, International Centre for the Settlement of Investment Disputes.
