Symbolic State Politics Linda L. M. Bennett, 1983 This case study focuses upon the primary secondary education funding process in Ohio to uncover the interaction patterns between state legislators state Department of Education administrators and education group lobbyists Through a series of interviews with twenty four participants in Ohio s education funding system the impact of schisms in the legislative leadership the sporadic intervention of the governor and elite cultivation and maintenance of Ohio s political culture are assessed The 1970s for Ohio and many other states were years of funding reform pressures teacher unionization and demands to ease property tax burdens All these factors converge to demonstrate that while many differences exist between state and nation there are also some remarkable similarities The Political Dynamics of School Choice L. Fusarelli, 2003-05-15 Lance D Fusarelli examines the relationship between the charter school and voucher issues To what degree does political support for charter schools from a coalition of teacher associations school board groups superintendents and voucher advocates slow or even stop the forces for vouchers Or do these coalitions which successfully pushed charter school legislation through the legislature actually fuel the fires of privatization Charter schools legislation has enjoyed bipartisan support precisely because the threat of vouchers is so great And contrary to the strategy of voucher opponents the spread of charter school increases rather than alleviates the push for vouchers Ohio Politics Mary Anne Sharkey, 1994 This is a survey of post World War II politics in Ohio Judicial Politics in Europe Mary L.
