

The background of the slide is a painting of a rugged coastal landscape. In the foreground, a dark, steep cliff face is visible on the right side. Beyond the cliff, the ocean stretches out with white-capped waves breaking against the shore. In the distance, another landmass or headland is visible across the water. The sky is filled with heavy, grey clouds, creating a somber and atmospheric mood. The overall color palette is dominated by blues, greys, and dark greens.

Modernism and Eugenics Donald J. Childs, 2001-09-06 In Modernism and Eugenics first published in 2001 Donald Childs shows how Virginia Woolf T S Eliot and W B Yeats believed in eugenics the science of race improvement and adapted this scientific discourse to the language and purposes of the modern imagination Childs traces the impact of the eugenics movement on such modernist works as Mrs Dalloway A Room of One's Own The Waste Land and Yeats's late poetry and early plays The language of eugenics moves he claims between public discourse and personal perspectives It informs Woolf's theorization of woman's imagination in Eliot's poetry it pictures as a nightmare the myriad contemporary eugenical threats to humankind's biological and cultural future And for Yeats it becomes integral to his engagement with the occult and his commitment to Irish Nationalism This is an interesting study of a controversial theme which reveals the centrality of eugenics in the life and work of several major modernist writers The Library of John Quinn John Quinn,1924
