Encyclopedia of Native American Music of North America Timothy Archambault,Elaine Keillor,John M. H. Kelly,2013-03-27 This book is a one stop reference resource for the vast variety of musical expressions of the First Peoples cultures of North America both past and present Encyclopedia of Native American Music of North America documents the surprisingly varied musical practices among North America s First Peoples both historically and in the modern context It supplies a detailed yet accessible and approachable overview of the substantial contributions and influence of First Peoples that can be appreciated by both native and nonnative audiences regardless of their familiarity with musical theory The entries address how ethnomusicologists with Native American heritage are revolutionizing approaches to the discipline and showcase how musicians with First Peoples heritage are influencing modern musical forms including native flute orchestral string playing gospel and hip hop The work represents a much needed academic study of First Peoples musical cultures a subject that is of growing interest to Native Americans as well as nonnative students and readers

Theory Groups and the Study of Language in North America Stephen O. Murray,1994 Theory Groups in the Study of Language in North America provides a detailed social history of traditions and revolutionary challenges to traditions within North American linguistics especially within 20th century anthropological linguistics After showing substantial differences between Bloomfield s and neo Bloomfieldian theorizing Murray shows that early transformational generative work on syntax grew out of neo Bloomfieldian structuralism and was promoted by neo Bloomfieldian gatekeepers in particular longtime Language editor Bernard Bloch The central case studies of the book contrast the increasingly revolutionary rhetoric of transformational generative grammarians with rhetorics of continuity emitted by two linguistic anthropology groupings that began simultaneously with TGG in the late 1950s the ethnography of communication and ethnoscience Anthropology in North America Roland Burrage Dixon, Franz Boas, 1915 Papers presented by the American Anthropological Association and the American Folk Lore Society to the nineteenth International Congress of Americanists October 1914 Topics include mythology religion physical anthropology material culture etc of North American Indians American Anthropologist ,1914
