The Canadian Girl at Work: A Book of Vocational Guidance Marjory MacMurchy Lady Willison, 2019-12-17 In The Canadian Girl at Work A Book of Vocational Guidance Marjory MacMurchy Lady Willison presents an insightful exploration of women's roles in the workforce during the early 20th century. This meticulously crafted volume serves as both a guide and an empowerment tool, addressing the unique challenges and opportunities available to Canadian women in various professions. Combining an engaging narrative style with practical advice, Willison deftly integrates sociological insights into her vocational counsel, establishing a dialogue about gender, labour, and societal expectations against the backdrop of Canada's evolving industrial landscape. Marjory MacMurchy Lady Willison was a pioneering figure in women's education and vocational training, and her own experiences as an educator undoubtedly influence her advocacy for women's participation in the workforce. Her commitment to improving educational opportunities for young women reveals her understanding of the pressing need for vocational guidance tailored to their experiences. This book is a manifestation of her belief that women could and should pursue fulfilling careers, a revolutionary stance at a time when societal norms often curtailed their ambitions. Readers interested in the historical context of women's labor rights as well as those seeking inspiration from a time of significant change will find this book invaluable. The Canadian Girl at Work not only serves as a significant historical text but also resonates with contemporary themes of gender equality and workplace empowerment, appealing to scholars, educators, and aspiring professionals alike.

Be Your Own Mentor Sheila Wellington, Betty Spence, 2001-04-15 Surprising secrets of success from some of America's women leaders: all the things a mentor would tell you are revealed in this mentor in a book. Sheila Wellington, the president of Catalyst, draws on Catalyst research contacts and know-how to tell you how to understand the unspoken rules in the real world of work today and how to get ahead. Catalyst studies reveal that having a mentor is the crucial key to success at work, and it's the single advantage men usually have and women usually don't. Even at the best organizations for women, there is still a shortage of mentors. Be Your Own Mentor becomes that mentor for you, providing through stories and eye-opening advice a step-by-step guide to advancement. How to master the art of networking, how to create opportunities to gain experience and visibility, how to manage time, how to negotiate salary, and much, much more is discussed as you learn from leading women how they got where they are, the mistakes they feel they've made along the way, and how they created lives of achievement and satisfaction. Hear from women such as Carly Fiorina, CEO Hewlett-Packard; Cathleen Black, president Hearst Magazines; Judith Rodin, president University of Pennsylvania; and Andrea Jung, president and CEO Avon. From that first resume all the way to the CEO's office, Be Your Own Mentor guides you along your path to success. Be Your Own Mentor gives advice from top women on how to devise a short-term and long-term career strategy, gain visibility in the workplace and in your field, create opportunities to gain valuable experience, change your career path, negotiate salary, balance work and family, and much
