Catholic Theology of Marriage in the Era of HIV and AIDS Emily Reimer-Barry, 2015-04-09 Marriage for Life begins by listening to the lived experiences of Catholic married HIV positive women in order to better understand their struggles The eight women interviewed in Chicago Illinois USA shared their stories of marriage of family life of church involvement and of living with HIV Their candid reflections offer a fresh and grounded perspective on the challenges of living with HIV in a US context After listening to and learning from these women's experiences Reimer Barry constructs a theology of Christian marriage that is life giving in a world with AIDS While Catholic teachings have developed and now affirm the equal dignity of women and men troubling legacies of women's subordination remain embedded in liturgical practices and theological texts Arguing that self care is an indispensable component of a healthy marriage Reimer Barry constructs a life affirming theology of marriage that is sensitive to the struggles of her

collaborators She argues that marriage for life must promote the full flourishing of both partners respect wives as equal partners with their husbands and offer a coherent and empowering sexual ethic Building on the wisdom of her collaborators lived experiences Reimer Barry examines the need for a more adequate Catholic response to HIV and AIDS arguing that church communities should promote comprehensive sexual education affirm both abstinence and condom use for HIV prevention and actively work to reduce stigmatizing behaviors within church communities She also unpacks the implications of marriage for life for Catholic liturgical practice marriage preparation programs sexual education programs and family ministries Modeling her method on what Pope Francis calls the art of accompaniment Reimer Barry argues that Catholic theology of marriage must be renewed and updated so that all can plainly understand that marriage is for life

The Anatomy of Loneliness Chikako Ozawa-de Silva,2021-12-07 Introduction disconnected people and the lonely society Subjectivity and empathy Too lonely to die alone internet group suicide Connecting the disconnected suicide websites Meaning in life exploring the need to be needed among young Japanese Surviving 3 11 The anatomy of resilience What loneliness can teach us "Valleys" - "Faith" - "Mountains" Black Precious,2015-06-30 Valley Faith Mountains is about some of the trouble and problems that can come into a persons life and turn the persons life upside down and all around My book tells of some of the problems and trouble I have endured from childhood to adulthood It also tells of how I overcame my situations and did not allow them to control or dictate my future My book tells how the Almighty God stepped in and kept me safe all through my life even now he is still with me It also tells how my God will and can do the same for everyone who will keep the faith and never give up that faith We all know that Satan wants us all to fail and when we allow Satan to have the upper hand he makes sure that we are caught with our mouths hanging down and our tongue hanging out He then stands back and laughs at us as we have to go through the punishment and shame that our actions has cost us Then again Satan is not always to blame for our situations is he Sometimes we go through trouble because we choose the wrong path or decision mainly because we think we can handle it better than God can We get caught when our actions and decisions go wrong and we blame everyone or something else instead of blaming the one possible reasonourselves My book lets everyone know that God is standing ready able and waiting to help each of us All we need do is have faith in God and have the courage and strength not to give up that faith After going through so much in life and still here to tell about it I wanted everyone to know that God is real and able and he waits for each of us to reach out to him for help Never give up
