Frick, Christopher T. Barry, Randy W.

Kamphaus, 2020-06-11 The fourth edition of this textbook offers a scientific and practical context within which to understand and conduct clinical assessments of children's and adolescent's personality and behavior. The new edition ensures that the content is relevant to diagnostic criteria for major forms of child and adolescent psychopathology in the 5th edition of the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders DSM-5. It provides updated information on specific tests and discusses advances in research that have occurred since the last edition that are relevant for assessing the most common forms of psychopathology shown by children and adolescents. The volume is unique in providing both the scientific and ethical basis to guide psychological testing as well as providing practical advice for using specific tests and assessing specific forms of psychopathology. This new edition highlights how current trends in psychological classification such as the DSM-5 and the Research Domain Criteria should influence the clinical assessment of children and adolescents. Provides updates to professional standards that should guide test users. Discusses practical considerations in planning and conducting clinical assessments. Evaluates the most recent editions of common tests used in the clinical assessment of child and adolescent personality and behavior. Provides an overview of how to screen for early signs of emotional and behavioral risk for mental problems in children and adolescents. Discusses practical methods for integrating assessment information collecting as part of a clinical assessment. Uses current research to guide clinical assessments of children with Attention deficit Hyperactivity Disorder, conduct problems, depression, anxiety, and autism spectrum disorder. Clinical Assessment of Child and Adolescent Personality and Behavior is a valuable updated resource for graduate students as well as veteran and beginning clinicians across disciplines including school clinical child developmental and educational psychology, psychiatry, counseling, and social work as well as related disciplines that provide mental health and educational services to children and adolescents. The

Equality Act for Educational Professionals Geraldine Hills, 2013-06-17 A definite must for SENCOS. Urmston Junior School. A good insight into process of tribunal and what the Equality Act means. Team Leader St Paul's CE Primary School. A much needed resource in supporting schools, centres, day nurseries and community childcare provision to understand the complexity of the issues surrounding SEN. A valuable tool. Gerri Ross, Head of Old Moat Sure Start Children's Centre, UK. Straightforward and easily accessible. I would recommend this book to undergraduates and professionals alike who have an interest in ensuring that the rights of disabled children are upheld. Dr Craig Blyth, School of Education, University of Manchester, UK. Under the Equality Act 2010, all schools and service providers have a legal obligation to make provision for disabled pupils staff and school users If you re feeling confused and concerned about the content and implications of the Disability Duty Act 1995 and the more recently released Equality Act 2010 and how it affects your setting this essential book will help you unpick the issues in a user friendly and easily accessible way This highly practical resource explains the main parts of Equality Act 2010 as it affects disability in a way that will encourage all members of staff within a school to feel confident that they are correctly implementing its requirements discusses reasonable adjustments and less favourable treatment which are at the heart of the legislation shows how less favourable treatment and reasonable adjustments apply to admissions exclusions handling of medicines and during school trips uses examples and case studies throughout and highlights the key factors for success in making reasonable adjustments takes readers through the process of an alleged act of discrimination against the school and how it may be resolved up to and including the SEND tribunal process The author brings a wealth of experience to this topic both as a parent of a disabled child and as a trainer of professionals She uses her unique insight to develop skills and awareness in anyone who follows her material and shows through tried and tested concepts and methods how schools and settings can avoid costly and stressful tribunals Headteachers teachers SENCos Sure Start Centre Managers and anyone who works in educational settings will find this book essential to their professional development and a fantastic source of support and help
