Arab Brazil Wail S. Hassan, 2024 Until recently Arab Brazilian relations have been largely invisible to area studies and Comparative Literature scholarship Yet Arabs have left a permanent imprint on Brazil from the Moorish legacy of Muslim Iberia transmitted by Portuguese settlers to waves of Arab immigrants since the late nineteenth century to the prominence today of Brazilians of Arab descent in politics the economy literature and culture The first book of its kind Arab Brazil Fictions of Tertiary Orientalism argues that representations of Arab and Muslim immigrants in Brazilian literature and popular culture since the early twentieth century reveal anxieties and contradictions in the country s ideologies of national identity Author Wail S Hassan analyzes those representations in a century of Brazilian novels short stories and telenovelas to show how the Arab East works paradoxically as a site of otherness different language culture and religion and solidarity cultural historical demographic and geopolitical ties What explains this contradiction argues Hassan is a Brazilian variety of Orientalism distinct from the British French and U S varieties analyzed by Edward Said that problematizes the idealized image of Brazil as a country built on mistura ethnic and racial mixing and cultural anthropophagy or the digestion and incorporation of diverse cultural influences

Mourning El Dorado Charlotte Rogers, 2019-06-13 What ever happened to the legend of El Dorado the tale of the mythical city of gold lost in the Amazon jungle Charlotte Rogers argues that El Dorado has not been forgotten and still inspires the reckless pursuit of illusory wealth The search for gold in South America during the colonial period inaugurated the promise of El Dorado the belief that wealth and happiness can be found in the tropical forests of the Americas That assumption has endured over the course of centuries still evident in the various modes of natural resource extraction such as oil drilling and mining that characterize the region today Mourning El Dorado looks at how fiction from the American tropics written since 1950 engages with the promise of El Dorado in the age of the Anthropocene Just as the golden kingdom was never found natural resource extraction has not produced wealth and happiness for the peoples of the tropics While extractivism enriches a few outsiders it results in environmental degradation and the subjugation displacement and forced assimilation of native peoples This book considers how the fiction of five writers Alejo Carpentier Wilson Harris Mario Vargas Llosa Ivano Lomuto and Milton Hatoum criticizes extractive practices and mourns the lost illusion of the forest as a place of wealth and happiness Global Middle East Asef Bayat, Linda Herrera, 2021-02-23 Localities countries and regions develop through complex interactions with others This striking volume highlights global interconnectedness seen through the prism of the Middle East both global in and global out It delves into the region's scientific artistic economic political religious and intellectual formations and traces how they have taken shape through a dynamic set of encounters and exchanges Written in short and accessible essays by prominent experts on the region Global Middle East covers topics including God Rumi food film fashion music sports science and the flow of people goods and ideas The text explores social and political movements from human rights Salafism and cosmopolitanism to radicalism and revolutions Using the insights of global studies students will glean new perspectives about the region Intimate Frontiers Felipe Martínez-Pinzón, Javier Uriarte, 2019 A collection of multinational scholarly contributions on various cultural aspects of the Amazon region in the 20th century The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions Wail S. Hassan, 2017-08-01 The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions is the most comprehensive treatment of the subject to date In scope the book encompasses the genesis of the Arabic novel in the second half of the nineteenth century and its development to the present in every Arabic speaking country and in Arab immigrant destinations on six continents Editor Wail S Hassan and his contributors describe a novelistic phenomenon which has pre modern roots stretching centuries back within the Arabic cultural tradition and branching outward geographically and linguistically to every Arab country and to Arab writing in many languages around the world The first of three innovative dimensions of this Handbook consists of examining the ways in which the Arabic novel emerged out of a syncretic merger between Arabic and European forms and techniques rather than being a simple importation of the latter and rejection of the former as early critics of the Arabic novel claimed The second involves mapping the novel geographically as it took root in every Arab country developing into often distinct though overlapping and interconnected local traditions Finally the Handbook concerns the multilingual character of the novel in the Arab world and by Arab immigrants and their descendants around the world both in Arabic and in at least a dozen other languages The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions reflects the current status of research in the broad field of Arab novelistic traditions and signals toward new directions of inquiry Who Is a Muslim? Maryam Wasif Khan, 2021-01-19 Who Is a Muslim argues that modern Urdu literature from its inception in colonial institutions such as Fort William College Calcutta to its dominant iterations in contemporary Pakistan popular novels short stories television serials is formed around a question that is and historically has been at the core of early modern and modern Western literatures The question Who is a Muslim a constant concern within eighteenth century literary and scholarly orientalist texts the English oriental tale chief among them takes on new and dangerous meanings once it travels to the North Indian colony and later to the newly formed Pakistan A literary historical study spanning some three centuries this book argues that the idea of an Urdu canon far from secular or progressive has been shaped as the authority designate around the intertwined questions of piety national identity and citizenship ArabAmericas Ottmar Ette,2006
