Tale Of The Incomparable Prince The Library Of Tibet:

The Tale of the Incomparable Prince Tshe-ring-dbang-rgyal (Mdo-mkhar Zhabs-drung), 1997 Tibet's only novel a parable for all time combines intrigue romance war and religion in a rousing adventure story set within the context of a traditional Buddhist worldview The story revolves around a prince and his love for a neighboring princess They marry but the prince's spiritual quest parallels the life of Buddha Author Rgyal lived from 1697 to 1763 and held many important government posts in Tibet including that of prime minister Rgyal's novel is an exquisite work of world literature "The Tale of the Incomparable Prince" Beth Ellean Solomon, 1987 The Selfless Ego Lucia Galli, Franz Xaver Erhard, 2021-05-13

The essays collected in The Selfless Ego propose an innovative approach to one of the most fascinating aspects of Tibetan literature life writing Departing from past schemes of interpretation this book addresses issues of literary theory and identity construction eluding the strictures imposed by the adoption of the hagiographical master narrative as synonymous with the genre The book is divided into two parts Ideally conceived as an introduction to traditional forms of life writing as expressed in Buddhist milieus Part I Memory and Imagination in Tibetan Hagiographical Writing centres on the inner tensions between literary convention and self expression that permeate indigenous hagiographies mystical songs records of teachings and autobiographies Part II Conjuring Tibetan Lives explores the most unconventional traits of the genre sifting through the narrative configuration of Tibetan biographical writings as liberation stories to unearth those fragments of life that compose an individual's multifaceted existence This volume is the first to approach Tibetan life writing from a literary and narratological perspective encompassing a wide range of disciplines themes media and historical periods and thus opening new and vibrant areas of research to future scholarship across the Humanities The chapters in this book were originally published as two special issues of Life Writing One Hundred Thousand Moons Tsepon Wangchuk Deden Shakabpa, 2010

A sustained argument for Tibetan independence this volume also serves as an introduction to many aspects of Tibetan culture society and especially religion with a compendium of biographies of the most significant religious and political figures Oral and Literary Continuities in Modern Tibetan Literature Lama Jabb, 2015-06-10 This is the first book length study to appear in English on the literary cultural and political roots of modern Tibetan literature While existing scholarship on modern Tibetan writing takes the 1980s as its point of birth and presents this period as marking a rupture with traditional forms of literature this book goes beyond such an interpretation by foregrounding instead the persistence of Tibet's artistic past and oral traditions in the literary creativity of the present While acknowledging the innovative features of modern Tibetan literary creation it draws attention to the hitherto neglected aspects of continuity within the new This study explores the endurance of genres styles concepts techniques symbolisms and idioms derived from Tibet's rich and diverse oral art forms and textual traditions It reveals how Tibetan kavya poetics the mgur genre life writing the Gesar epic and other modes of oral and literary compositions are referenced and adapted in novel ways within modern

Tibetan poetry and fiction It also brings to prominence the complex and fertile interplay between orality and the Tibetan literary text Embracing a multidisciplinary approach drawing on theoretical insights in western literary theory and criticism political studies sociology and anthropology this research shows that alongside literary and oral continuities the Tibetan nation proves to be an inevitable attribute of modern Tibetan literature Modern Tibetan Literature and Social Change Luran R. Hartley, Patricia Schiaffini-Vedani, 2008-07-16 The first systematic and detailed overview of modern Tibetan literature

Among Tibetan Texts E. Gene Smith, 2001-06-15 For three decades E Gene Smith ran the Library of Congress s Tibetan Text Publication Project of the United States Public Law 480 PL480 an effort to salvage and reprint the Tibetan literature that had been collected by the exile community or by members of the Bhotia communities of Sikkim Bhutan India and Nepal Smith wrote prefaces to these reprinted books to help clarify and contextualize the particular Tibetan texts the prefaces served as rough orientations to a poorly understood body of foreign literature Originally produced in print quantities of twenty these prefaces quickly became legendary and soon photocopied collections were handed from scholar to scholar achieving an almost cult status These essays are collected here for the first time The impact of Smith s research on the academic study of Tibetan literature has been tremendous both for his remarkable ability to synthesize diverse materials into coherent accounts of Tibetan literature history and religious thought and for the exemplary critical scholarship he brought to this field
