Talents And Temperaments The Psychology Of Vocational Guidance:

Talents and Temperaments Angus Macrae,1941 Psychology Library Editions: Personality Various,2021-07-29 The study of personality has a long history and many different theoretical viewpoints within psychology Psychology Library Editions Personality 16 Volume set presents titles originally published between 1950 and 1997 covering many of these traditions and theories It includes contributions from many well respected academics and is a fascinating insight into this diverse field An Introduction to Personality Study Raymond B. Cattell,2019-03-04 Originally published in 1950 the need for a small standard text on basic principles of personality structure and development had been very apparent to teachers of psychology for some time There were many books illustrating specialized or applied aspects of the psychology of personality such as abnormal psychology educational psychology child psychology mental measurement vocational guidance etc but lacking was a treatment of personality study as pure psychology concentrating on the fundamentals The aim of this title was therefore to bring the general problems of personality description and development normal and abnormal into a single perspective and to integrate the principle fields of observation in clear cut generalizations Report Russell Sage Foundation. Copyright Office,1932 Industrial Psychology Charles S. Myers,2013-06-04 One of the first psychology books written for the general population written by several members of the psychological community wishing to explain their field and its worth in the industrial world Women's Employment ,1933 Industrial Welfare and Personnel Management ,1933 Organization of Vocational Guidance Arthur Frank Payne,1925 Practice in Vocational Guidance Frederick James Allen,1927 Psychology and the Choice of a Career F. M. Earle,2024-11-01 Originally published in 1933 Psychology and the Choice of a Career formalizes the art of vocational guidance which was growing in public interest at the time It sets out the points to consider when choosing a career path and the abilities you may need It was a valuable tool to those seeking employment for the first time in the early twentieth century Today it can be read in its historical context The Vocational Guidance Magazine ,1928 The Medical Journal of Australia ,1933 Bulletin of the International Bureau of Education ,1933 The Structure of Human Abilities (Psychology Revivals) Philip E. Vernon,2014-01-27 First published in 1950 this revised edition of The Structure of Human Abilities was published in 1961 but remained largely unchanged from the original save for an additional supplement on the developments in factorial work on human abilities from 1950 1959 Much research had been carried out during the years leading up to publication in England and America into mental abilities and modern methods of statistical treatment especially factor analysis had been increasingly used It was felt that the mass of diverse material was apt to confuse the student of psychology of the time especially as the results of such research were often apparently conflicting Professor Vernon one of the leading experts in this branch of psychology sifted the material and attempted to provide a consistent picture of our mental structure

Psychology and its Bearing on Education C.W. Valentine, 2015-06-05 Originally published in 1950 the author after many years teaching of psychology and previous school teaching experience provided a book specially suitable for students in training colleges and university education departments for teachers youth leaders and all concerned with the training of children and adolescents at the time He aimed especially at clarity the provision of concrete illustrations and the stressing of material of general agreement among psychologists The topics include The Development and Training of Personality and Character The Basic Motives Suggestion Unconscious Influences Sex Education Learning and Remembering Repression and Discipline Play and Activity Methods The Interests of Children The Acquisition of Skill Training in Reasoning General Intelligence and Special Abilities and their Testing Estimating Personality and Character Educational and Vocational Guidance School Records Stages of Development in Infancy Middle Childhood and Adolescence Backward Problem and Delinquent Children The Appreciation of Beauty and Aesthetic Education 1 Nature and Visual Art 2 Music 3 Poetry Considerable space was given to these three in view of their usual neglect in textbooks of psychology at the time A brief appendix gives simple explanations of the most essential statistical methods applied to psychology and education The need of one book to cover the whole course in Psychology and its bearing on Education had long been felt and it was hoped that this volume would fulfil this purpose The New Era ,1933
