Folktales of the Jews, Volume 1 Dov Noy, Dan Ben-Amos, Ellen Frankel, 2006-09-03 Tales from the Sephardic Dispersion begins the most important collection of Jewish folktales ever published It is the first volume in Folktales of the Jews the five volume series to be released over the next several years in the tradition of Louis Ginzberg's classic Legends of the Jews The 71 tales here and the others in this series have been selected from the Israel Folktale Archives Named in Honor of Dov Noy The University of Haifa IFA a treasure house of Jewish lore that has remained largely unavailable to the entire world until now Since the creation of the State of Israel the IFA has collected more than 20 000 tales from newly arrived immigrants long lost stories shared by their families from around the world The tales come from the major ethno linguistic communities of the Jewish world and are representative of a wide variety of subjects and motifs especially rich in Jewish content and context Each of the tales is accompanied by in depth commentary that explains the tale s cultural historical and literary background and its similarity to other tales in the IFA collection and extensive scholarly notes There is also an introduction that describes the Sephardic culture and its folk narrative tradition a world map of the areas covered illustrations biographies of the collectors and narrators tale type and motif indexes a subject index and a comprehensive bibliography Until the establishment of the IFA we had had only limited access to the wide range of Jewish folk narratives Even in Israel the gathering place of the most wide ranging cross section of world Jewry these folktales have remained largely unknown Many of the communities no longer exist as cohesive societies in their representative lands the Holocaust migration and changes in living styles have made the continuation of these tales impossible This volume and the others to come will be monuments to a rich but vanishing oral tradition Vanity Fair ,1987-07 Sopolyrimu Volume 1 Marcus M.

Cornelius,2009-02 The sopolyrimu songs poems and lyrics for music are inspired by the fragility of the human predicament the struggle to maintain a meaningful integrity and lightness of spirit the exquisite fineness of being alive and the visions of the world inner and outer one is obliged to look at or be affected by Equally the sopolyrimu arise from the search for love the experience of love and the loss of love They are written to celebrate the joys and ugliness of the never ending stream of life in which we move sometimes at a total loss sometimes close to bliss but always feeling something if we allow ourselves to feel and ask questions of our feelings and feel grateful In this sense they are all love s songs to love with love from love One of the sopolyrimu in this Volume is called Begun is done Given the pattern of life repetition is inevitable There s always another chance until all the cards have been played Each time the intention the content of the intention builds or diminishes momentum and content accumulates through repetition for better and worse adding a dash or a dose of sugar or salt acid or salve It all adds up Begun is done Consciousness is everything in the end at the start One says I did not realise One does not want to say I did not realise my self In that spirit begun is done May you be blessed by the self you realise The most frequent comment about these sopolyrimu is that they are curiously healing powerful potent and pertinent and demand and reward full attention Gone with the Wind.
