Lyons, Mary B. McKinley, 2016-11-11 Appearing in print for the first time in 1558 the book that we now know as the Heptameron is the work of Marguerite Queen of Navarre Left incomplete but dearly modeled on Boccaccio's Decameron the Heptameron consists of a frame narrative and seventy-two tales told by five men and five women characters in the shady meadow at Notre Dame de Sarrance As John D Lyons and Mary B McKinley contend in their introduction to this volume the tales of the Heptameron portray the conflicts ruptures and upheavals that agitated early modern French society They present a forum in which different elements of Renaissance and Reformation culture meet and at times collide Contradictory suppositions about men and women are easily discerned behind almost all of the stories and the discussions among the fictional storytellers represent attitudes both feminist and misogynist masculinist and misandrous Less oppositional are the religious conflicts among the storytellers some are less ardently religious while others are concerned with the corporeal rather than the spiritual The stories of the Heptameron are often cautionary tales about the corruption of the late medieval church about decadent priests and monks or about the unfortunate faithful whose belief in the efficacy of good works for salvation leads to disaster and death The conflicts of the Reformation loom over the Heptameron not just as the origin of its ideological tensions but also as a prominent symptom of the larger related disruptions that marked sixteenth century Europe Provocative and wide ranging appealing to specialists in numerous fields Critical Tales is the first collective volume of studies in English on the Heptameron The authors Robert D Cottrell Hope are abnormal figures at the heart of literary canon and what do they tell us about the society that writes and circulates these stories This book studies the constitution of disability and discusses concepts of corporeal difference that are socio historically rooted in the Indian cultural milieu The volume aims at looking at the central issue of the various aspects of disability representation the impact of these representations on the materially embodied experience of disablement the political imperatives shaping the narratives of corporeal difference and the influences of highly particularised local cultural context on the constitution of epistemic and discursive notions of corporeality The volume follows three routes of inquiry How do we find disability in texts or what are disability texts How do we read concepts historically using literary and cultural texts and what would a similar study of the Indian context reveal How do we study culturally distinct ways of narrating bodyminds These questions will be answered through a discussion of representation histories of the abnormal informed by histories of disease conditions and its representations with the aim of developing ways of thinking and talking about concepts of corporeal difference that are socio culturally and socio historically located away from the western context and to explore the intersections between gender caste religion sexuality class and disability
